

PROPHETIC

Your message burns in my heart and bones, and I cannot keep silent. (Jeremiah 20:9)

The testimony of JESUS is the spirit of the prophecy. (Revelation 19:10c)

"Diabolically Evil" (Word) "Fulness of My Anointing" (Word)

There is not one bit of doubt in my mind that the structures of man are truly crumbling in our day in fulfillment of what the Lord spoke to me twenty-five years ago. Even a cursory review of the daily news proves it so, unless one is completely blinded by some ideology or agenda. Who could have imagined what we are witnessing today? Sure, some have predicted specific events but no one can claim to have seen the level of crumbling on so many fronts, especially in the US. It's as if the world has gone mad (i.e., out of control, insane). And, I don't think this is an exaggeration.

On July 8, 2020, a word came to me: My son, what is coming is diabolically evil. It is defeated but the day comes. Do not be dismayed; evil must rise up in this hour. The world must see what is unleashed when it is in rebellion against its Creator. All will seem lost, but My called and chosen will rise up in the fulness of My anointing, shining forth in My kingdom.

The evil of this day is almost palpable. Watching what is going on should remind us of righteous Lot who suffered day after day by the evil things he saw. I'm sure many with spiritual discernment can sense it. But we must not be dismayed or discouraged by what is transpiring.

For the ruthless [powerful, tyrannical] will come to an end and the scorner will be finished, indeed all who are intent on doing evil will be cut off; who cause a person to be indicted by a word, and ensnare him who adjudicates at the gate, and defraud the one in the right with meaningless arguments. (Isaiah 29:20-21 NASB [added])

A paraphrase translation reads: Tyrants will be gone. Mockers will be finished. All who look for ways to do wrong will come to an end (Isaiah 29:20 GW). This is just as applicable today as it was in the ancient days, especially as we witness tyranny rising through public policy throughout the world.

As I have been warning; there is much more to come. Clearly, the world-at-large has been mostly blinded to this. Stated another way: they are unable to read the signs because they have been sealed from their sight (blinded) or because they have no spiritual ability to read them.

I say this, for, on August 14, 2020, I was led to the following verses from Isaiah.

The entire vision will be to you like the words of a sealed book, which when they give it to the one who is literate, saying, "Please read this," he will say, "I cannot, for it is sealed." Then the book will be given to the one who is illiterate, saying, "Please read this." And he will say, "I cannot read." (Isaiah 29:11-12 NASB)

There is obvious historical context to these verses; but what is of interest to us in this day is the principle behind them.

"Fulness of My Anointing"

The literate are the ones that should be able to read the signs, but they have been sealed so that they cannot access them. In ancient days, the kings would send messages and seal them with their insignia in wax. No one was allowed to unseal the message except the one to whom it was written.

Today, King Jesus has sealed the signs (vision) from the many who should be able to read them. They have the ability as the literate, but the message is not for them; they're not allowed to even see it to read. Another way of stating this is that they have been blinded. This group most likely is comprised of the intellectuals, the elitists, the "smart" ones, those "in the know", and many leaders of both the secular and the religious institutions.

However, there is another group called the illiterate that, even if the book is opened to them, they have no ability to read it. They have no ability to read, that is, understand the signs (vision) even if they are staring them in the face because they do not have the spirit of God to do so. They too are blinded.

In whatever way the literate and the illiterate are categorized, the bottom-line is that few actually understand what is truly going on in the earth today, for many do not understand the plan of God as this age nears its end. Very few have real understanding of what God is doing in these days, and this includes a number who claim faith in Jesus. Keep in mind that Isaiah was speaking to Ariel, the city where David once camped, which refers to Jerusalem. Their hearts were far from the Lord and their reverence for the Lord consisted of tradition learned by rote (i.e., teaching as doctrines the precepts of men [Matthew 15:9]).

We too can fall into this trap, but the good news is that the spirit of the Lord is shaking and awakening the called and chosen to rise up in the anointing and presence of King Jesus.

God's plan for the age is a glorious one that evil will not thwart. The fact of the matter is that evil is rising so that it can be exposed for what it truly is. When it is exposed, the light of the world will dispel it with a glance. The anointed ones of the Anointed One (i.e., Christ Jesus) are the light of the world, and the day is coming soon for this light to shine in the midst of darkness in a way the world has never experienced.

This light is the kingdom of the heavens manifesting on earth in great glory.

As I have stressed in many writings, the Lord's people are soon to be awakened to the reality of who they are in Christ, and have been all along. Each of us has the anointing, the spirit of truth, to teach us all things because we have the Anointed One residing within our inner man. In other words, we have both the anointing and the presence of King Jesus. This truth has been lost among God's people; we have erred in our understanding and have capped the well of this life within.

Interestingly, Isaiah 29:24 says: Those who err in mind will know the truth. Yes, the called and chosen will know the truth, the very truth that sets us free to be all that the Father has intended for us to be in His Son.

This is good news.
