On February 28, 2008, I had a very vivid dream in which I saw an extremely filthy cord tied to a black man wearing a baseball cap, with the cord attached to me. In the dream, I was very repulsed by this gross cord but not necessarily by the man. I was being pulled around by this man. I tried to get away from him, but he would not let me go, so I took a pair of scissors, cut the cord, and then washed the part that had been attached to me.

I puzzled about this dream for the next seven months, until on September 16, 2008, as I was in prayer, I believe that the Spirit of God gave me understanding. Much to my surprise, it was not one man but two men in one. The black man represented Barack Obama and the baseball cap represented John McCain. If you didn't notice, while on the campaign trail, John McCain often wore a baseball cap. Interestingly, the face of the man in the dream was not thin but round, which is more a picture of John McCain as well. I must add that neither man had won the nomination of his party at that time. John McCain clinched it the next month, but Barack Obama did not clinch it until June.

The imagery and interpretation that came to me is not something that I could make up. I had not been thinking about the two candidates in reference to the dream nor had I been pondering any theories about the meaning of the dream. It came to me as quickly as a flash of lightning.

Let me be abundantly clear that I do not believe this dream is about any particular individual nor is it meant to impugn the character of either man or to bring attention to me. It is not about the men; it is about what they represent, since they were the primary figures on the political scene at that moment in time.

Here is the interpretation of the dream: The two men represented the political system in the US, I represented the American people, and the filthy cord represented the corruption that has permeated the political system as it has become more about power and control, love of money, greed, lies, hypocrisy, and conflict than about righteousness, justice, mercy, truth, peace, and love. Cutting and washing the cord signified the release of the American people from attachment to this corruption and coming into something clean or incorrupt. It is significant that, in the dream, I was led to cut and then wash the part of the cord that was attached to me.

On September 23, 2008, I was led to take a cord, cover it with dirt, cut it, and then wash the part I held and discard the other part, to signify the breaking of this corruption that is attached to the American people. In some measure, I believe that what I was led to do was important to the Kingdom of God and the hour in which we live. It was a spiritual act based on Matthew 6:10: Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. It has been done in heaven, and now, I believe, it will be manifested on earth at the time fixed by the Father's authority.

I did not choose this particular day to act out this spiritual battle other than I had set the day aside to seek the Lord and pray. However, in retrospect, I see that the day had significance since it was made up of the numbers 9 and 23. The number 9 refers to judgment and the number 23 refers to death. Thus, the corrupt political system is under judgment that will lead to its demise and replacement by something much better. I believe its replacement is the Kingdom of our Lord, which is the righteous government of God.

Dream – Cords of Falsehood

The Word of God makes reference to a cord of falsehood and iniquity.

(18) Woe to those who drag iniquity with the cords of falsehood, and sin as if with cart ropes; (19) who say, "Let Him make speed, let Him hasten His work, that we may see it; And let the purpose of the Holy One of Israel draw near and come to pass, that we may know it!" (20) Woe to those who call evil good, and good evil; who substitute darkness for light and light for darkness; who substitute bitter for sweet and sweet for bitter!
(Isaiah 5:18-20 NASB)

Is this not the hour in which we live? Do we not see a political system filled with darkness that calls evil good and good evil and substitutes darkness for light and light for darkness?

Thank God; He has purposed to cut this cord and set us free to truly be a righteous nation under God that declares Jesus is the King of the nations.
