Key of the Kingdom: Truth & Life (Dreams)

And I will give to thee the keys of the reign (kingdom) of the heavens, and whatever thou mayest bind upon the earth shall be having been bound in the heavens, and whatever thou mayest loose upon the earth shall be having been loosed in the heavens. (Matthew 16:19 YLT [bold italic added])

All authority (power) is given to Me within heaven and upon the earth. ... And lo! I am with you, all the days, until the conclusion of the age. (Matthew 28:18, 20 [bold italic added])

The giving of the keys of the kingdom of the heavens was based on the foundation (rock) that, as the Son of Man, Jesus is the Christ (Messiah: King, Prophet, Priest), the Son of the living God. He has been given all authority in heaven and on earth and, in this capacity, He holds the keys of the kingdom. But let us never forget that Jesus Himself is the summation of all the keys. He is the Key of the kingdom! As the all in all of God, Jesus is the full embodiment of the kingdom of God, and as such, He is the Key.

Keys symbolize authority. In the practical world, keys have the dual purpose of opening or locking things – most notably, doors. Consequently, as the head of His body, Jesus delegates His authority to His people to bind and to loose, or to shut and to open whatever is in need of such action. The word key also has a figurative connotation of something that is the answer or the solution. Truly, Jesus is the answer and solution to all things.

Now, over a span of ten years, revelation has come to me regarding a key of the kingdom that I believe is crucial to the body of Christ in this day. This key is not just for me; it is one that must be exercised by Christ's body.

On February 28, 2008, I dreamt about keys.

I saw a large field with piles of broken keys. I was searching through the keys until I found one very unusual key that was not broken. It was unusual because the part that would go into a keyhole had a strange shape, one that appeared like a wave or the tail of a whale or a fish. Then, I saw a door with a woman standing on the other side; she was in what could be described as a stairwell with a staircase beyond. She wanted out to where I stood among all the broken keys, but her key would not open the door. However, the key I had in my possession opened the door, and I went through it to the staircase.

On April 18, 2017, I dreamt of a silver key that broke in half (down the middle) into two mirror images.

On July 31, 2017, I was given a word about one half of the key: You have been given the key of truth.

Then, on February 4, 2018, I dreamt of the second half of the key.

Something significant was going on; something that had to be unveiled or revealed. There were eight of us and each had a key. I was given the impression that the first and the eighth keys were important, with the eighth one more so. Then, it was revealed that I held the eighth key and it represented the key of life. While still in the dream state, I realized that if the number 8 is split a certain way, each half looks more like the “wave” part of the key of the kingdom I saw in the 2008 dream. The dream ended on a strange note. People were sick and a man was offering them a potion. He came up to me and asked if I was sick. I answered: No! I then woke and immediately looked at the clock, which read 3:02 am.

The Key

In the design of keys, there are three major parts: the handle that one grips to insert the key into the lock, the shaft, and the "bitting" – the part that makes contact with the internal components (tumbler) of the lock. What was unique about this key was the bitting portion that looked more like what would be expected to be the handle. In other words, the part that would go into the lock was the largest portion of the key, and it looked like the top bar of a stylized letter T with the bar shaped as if one took the number 8 and cut it a certain way to make it look like a wave or the tail of a whale. Picturing it as a wave in the ocean, it had a crest and a trough. Difficult to describe!

My first impression led me to call it the fish key. Of course, a fish has a direct connotation to Jesus' command to His disciples: Follow Me, and I will make you fishers of men (Matthew 4:19). However, based on what came later, this is not the primary meaning, although, in a broad sense, it could be seen in its meaning.

To re-emphasize – the key I sought out and discovered among all the broken keys was actually a double-sided key (or: two keys in one), with one side signifying truth and the other side signifying life. The key was also made of silver, and silver signifies truth and redemption. The stylized T itself indicates truth, and the number 8 signifies new beginning or new creation – meaning new life. Redemption also speaks of life. Thus, it is the key of truth and life, and this is in relation to the kingdom of our Lord. As the Truth and the Life and the full embodiment of the kingdom, Jesus is central to this key – leave Him out and there is no authority, no truth or life, and no kingdom.

As the I AM, God's Son is the sum total of truth and life. Of course, the kingdom embodies other things, such as righteousness and justice, but, in my estimation, truth and life sum up all other traits of the kingdom, except for love that runs deep, which is the thread or primary essence that is the glue of the entire kingdom. Although another topic, the key of David signifies the key of love.

The Stairway

The stairway signifies the union of heaven and earth with Jesus, once again, central and supreme to this union. Scripture gives us this imagery, starting with what many call Jacob's ladder – better called Yahweh's or Elohim's ladder.

And dreaming is he, and behold! A stairway set up earthward, with its head touching the heavens. And behold! Messengers of the Elohim are ascending and descending on it. And behold! Yahweh is stationed on it. And saying is He, “I am Yahweh, the Elohim of Abraham, your forefather, and the Elohim of Isaac.” (Genesis 28:12-13a CLV [bold italic added])

Jesus looked back at Jacob's dream and clearly revealed that He, as Yahweh, is the link between heaven and earth. In Jacob's day, He stood on the ladder as Yahweh and, in the disciples' day, He stood once again, but this time, as the Son of Mankind or Yeshua. Yahweh Has Become My Yeshua.

And He is saying to him, "Verily, verily, I am saying to you, henceforth you shall be seeing heaven opened up and the messengers [agents] of God [habitually (progressively; continuously; repeatedly)] ascending and descending on the Son of Mankind." (John 1:51 CLV (bold italic added) [JM-NT])

Representatively, I opened this door and headed toward the heaven-to-earth staircase. Truth and life lead to the union of heaven and earth, with Jesus as the Way (or: metaphorically, the staircase). This is vital to understanding the binding and loosing of Matthew 16:19. Does this not also speak to our destiny of being transformed into spirit-animated bodies, a new creation in the image of Christ? Yes!

The Woman

Who is the woman stuck in the vestibule of the staircase not able to get out with a broken key? I had the impression she could not go up and could not go out, meaning she was bound. Her key was broken like all the other keys, meaning she was without authority. Is she a picture of the condition of the "public" church of our day? Has she wandered so far from truth and life that she is in bondage? Has she lost her heavenly edge, that is, heavenly vision? After all, the gospel has focused so much on dying and going to heaven, which is not the gospel, and far less on heaven coming to earth to establish God's rights over His creation through His Son who inherits the nations and possesses the earth, which is the good news.

Dear saints, we are in a day of declension. The public church has wed herself to the world more than most realize. In the US, she has entangled herself with a political system that is deeply corrupt, and she has failed to see that she has become all that America is, both good and bad. In other words, she is a reflection of a nation in declension.

On a national level, as an Israelite nation born of God in 1776, America is heading down the failed path of ancient Israel. It is time to wake up to who we are as a nation under the one, true God Almighty. There are other nations on earth that need to wake up as well, but I must speak to my own nation in this day. We are sick from head to toe and the whole heart is faint. The pandemic (real or not) is a sign of this sickness. God's fiery word has gone forth!

We are entering a time of purification of the church and the nations that can only come through God's consuming fire. In the judgment of God, as His people, we must be salted (preserved) with fire in order to purify us of all sin and unrighteousness – of all carnality. How could God righteously deal with the nations of the world that reject His Son, if His own people have failed to be living testimonies (imagers of Christ) to the nations? Judgment must begin with the house of God and, through this judgment, Christ is building His ecclesia.

The Potion

The sick people and the potion connect to the bound woman, much like the woman who had been bound by a spirit for 18 years when Jesus healed her on the Sabbath or seventh day (Luke 13:11). The seventh day signifies the coming of the kingdom of our Lord with His conquerors, openly manifesting the King's authority and truth and life to all the nations, expressed through His love.

In line with the dreams, it seems that those who don't hold to and exercise the key of truth and life are sick. This is a spiritual sickness and its cure can only come through the one who is the truth and the life. Since I representatively held the key, I could rightfully say I was not sick, nor are all who hold the key.

What about the potion the man offered? This doesn't seem to be a good thing, meaning it isn't the cure for this spiritual sickness. Unfortunately, the Lord's people are seeking after the wrong antidote for what ails them and the nations. They are looking to governments to guarantee them freedom, to rescue them, and to deal with the many evil practices and sicknesses of this day. They are bound and have no authority to open and shut doors. Jesus, as the Truth and the Life, is the only cure. He is the Way! This is the key to spiritual health. He is the Key!

On a physical level, could this also literally point to the 2020-21 pandemic? Is the potion the untested, high-tech vaccines the governments and their colluders around the globe are getting ready to inject into the people who are wrought with fear? Was it an indication not to get vaccinated, especially if one is not sick? Is it during this time of sickness and potions (vaccines) that the key of truth and life will be most needed and utilized to bring true healing to people? Is it a sign of the manifestation of the coming kingdom of our Lord, at which time, there will be massive healing of all kinds of illness, sickness, and disease? I believe this is going to come with the awakening of God's people to their true nature in Christ and the anointing we have all possessed all along but has been bound by religion and all its outward form rather than being released by life and its inward reality.

3:02

At first, one might discount this time, but don't be so quick to do so. Jesus breathed His last at 3:01 (see: Number 153), meaning that by 3:02, the grain of wheat had fallen into the ground to bear much fruit.

I most solemnly say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the ground and dies, it remains a single grain. But if it does die, it yields a great harvest. (John 12:24 Williams [bold added])

Amen! A great harvest is coming!

In the meantime, there is one pressing question: As the Lord's people, how do we exercise the Lord's authority through the keys of the kingdom? Not by our own will, but by His spirit – the spirit of truth (John 16:13; 1 John 4:6) that also gives life to our mortal bodies (Romans 8:11)! There is no other way.
