

Vision – Supreme Court Floating Down a River

Re: Judgment of the US Legal System

June 29, 2010

I was in prayer around 6 am on June 29, 2010, and I was inquiring of the Lord about the government of the United States. I sensed something significant was going on in Washington, DC but was not sure what it was.

As my eyes were closed a vision came to me of the US Supreme Court building in DC. The distinctive building was disconnected from its foundation and was moving down a river and leaning to one side as if it were going to sink into the water.

I later realized that this came as the US Congress was holding hearings on the candidacy of Elena Kagan for US Supreme Court justice.

It appears that the Lord is going to judge the legal system of the US.
