

THE UPWARD CALL

*Brethren, I do not regard myself as having laid hold of it yet;
but one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and reaching forward to what lies ahead,
I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God
IN CHRIST JESUS.*

(Philippians 3:13-14 NASB)

Invasion of Unwalled Villages

In order to understand what follows, please see issue #04-1083, August 5, 2010, Ashkenazi Jews.

Noah had three sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth, and two of Japheth's seven sons were Gomer and Magog. Gomer begat three sons named Ashkenaz and Riphath and Togarmah (Genesis 10:1-3). The Khazars are descendants of Gomer's son Togarmah, the brother of Ashkenaz, which means they are not in the line of Shem that led to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. In 740 AD, the Khazar Empire converted to Judaism and became known as Ashkenazi Jews or the Ashkenazim. They are generally identified as Eastern European Jews or Russian Jews. This makes them apparent Jews, since they hold to Judaism and reject Christ.

With this background in mind, consider Ezekiel 38-39 and the prophecy about Gog of the land of Magog invading the land of Israel. In order to do this, we need to put aside the commonly taught interpretation of this prophecy that is so ingrained in the evangelical community. I have long held that Ezekiel 38-39 cannot be fulfilled as many believe it will be. Either it has already occurred, or it is reserved for some time after the year 3000 AD at the end of the 1,000-year Kingdom Age. After all, Revelation 20:7-9 refers to Gog and Magog. However, it is just as likely that it has been fulfilled by the Ashkenazim (Togarmah) and Sephardim (Judah and Edom) Jews that officially invaded the land in 1948 and unlawfully usurped the birthright name Israel as their country's name.

Many see Ezekiel's prophecy being fulfilled at the end of our present age as Russia, Germany, and other modern countries of the Middle East invade the Jewish state of Israel when it is an open space with no walls (Ezekiel 38:11), that is, when it has no threats of invasion from other nations. According to this scenario, the Jews will enter into a peace agreement with Antichrist that will turn sour, so to speak.

The problem with this scenario is that modern Israel is a walled territory with tremendous levels of security, including a major wall running along its border. Even if they were to enter into a false peace agreement, it is inconceivable that the Jews would ever let their guard down to the point of no security, given their Zionist history. Unless they were totally deceived by an evil spirit, which is always possible, there is no way that the Zionists of the state of Israel would give up their security. So, this raises the question of the timing of the fulfillment of this prophecy. The Ashkenazim may provide the clue.

(1) And the word of the LORD came to me saying, (2) "Son of man, set your face toward Gog of the land of Magog, the prince of Rosh, Meshech and Tubal, and prophesy against him (3) and say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD, "Behold, I am against you, O Gog, prince of Rosh, Meshech and Tubal." (4) And I will turn you back and put hooks into your jaws. And I will bring you and all your army out: horses and horsemen, all of them clothed most perfectly; a great assembly with buckler and shield, all of them swordsmen. (5) Persia, Ethiopia, and Libya are with them, all of them with shield and helmet; (6) Gomer and all its bands; the house of Togarmah from the recesses of the north, and all its bands; many peoples are with you. (Ezekiel 38:1-6 LITV)

There are two groups involved in this invasion, one from north of the Black Sea, identified as the land of Magog (Gomer's brother), and one from the Middle East region. However, the bands from the north are specifically identified as the house of Togarmah, son of Gomer, brother of Ashkenaz, and nephew of Magog. Thus, if Ezekiel's prophecy is to be fulfilled in our day, then it requires a people who are descendants of Togarmah and related to Ashkenaz and Magog. There is one group that fits this requirement, the Ashkenazim or Russian Jews, not the nation of Russia.

Not to confuse the issue, but many commentators assume that Gomer is modern Germany, and many Jews identify Germany as Ashkenaz; however, based on the history of the Khazars, this cannot be true. They are Russian Jews. Besides, there is other historical evidence linking another Gomer (Ghomri) to the ten lost tribes of Israel that occupied Germany and much of Europe. Hosea was told to take a wife of harlotry whose name was Gomer (Hosea 1:2-4). She is a type of the lost house of Israel that was sent into captivity because of harlotry.

Thus, if we accept what appears to be historical fact that the Jewish Kingdom of Khazar was situated north of the land of Israel and that they converted to Judaism and that the people were/are descendants of Gomer or the house of Togarmah, then the invading army could be Russian Jews, instead of the nations of Russia and Germany.

(9) "You will go up, you will come like a storm; you will be like a cloud covering the land, you and all your troops, and many peoples with you." (10) 'Thus says the Lord GOD, "It will come about on that day, that thoughts will come into your mind and you will devise an evil plan, (11) and you will say, 'I will go up against the land of unwalled villages. I will go against those who are at rest, that live securely, all of them living without walls and having no bars or gates, (12) to capture spoil and to seize plunder, to turn your hand against the waste places which are now inhabited, and against the people who are gathered from the nations, who have acquired cattle and goods, who live at the center of the world.'" (Ezekiel 38:9-12 NASB)

When could this evil plan have been devised and executed? Well, it could have been when Palestine was open space and not surrounded with security, that is, when it was a land of unwalled villages. Prior to the modern Jewish state being formed in 1947-1948 on the ancient land, the villages that were there were unwalled, but that soon changed as the Jews fought the locals and their neighbors and began to secure their territory. The Zionists were determined to take the land of Israel as their own and were willing to do violence to accomplish their goal. In other words, they captured the land. In those days, much of the land truly was a waste place and basically agricultural (cattle and goods). As the state of Israel advanced, modern cities were built and the land was at one time waste places was cultivated. All of this fits the above description.

So, who invaded Palestine and when? The Ashkenazim or the Russian Jews did, starting in 1948 and continuing on as other Jews from around the region migrated to the land of Israel. Reportedly, the Ashkenazim comprise 80% of white Jewry. Add to them Edom, who is now in modern Jewry (forcibly absorbed into Judaism), and the evil figs of Judah (Judahites, Sephardim), and you have quite a volatile group of apparent Jews that are comfortable living by the sword with bloodshed pursuing them (Ezekiel 35:6; Matthew 11:12). Their history proves this to be true.

Of course, this goes so against the grain of most Christian teaching that some will reject this suggestion out of hand. As Christians, we have been taught not to question anything about the modern Jew and Israel, as if God is going to take His vengeance out on us if we do. Have we become superstitious and ignore His law? I encourage you to search scripture in light of history.

Apparent Jews (by blood and conversion) invaded the land, thinking they had a God-given right to take it back. However, it was unlawful to do so, since they were scattered to the nations in 70 AD by God Himself who made the land waste (Ezekiel 33:28; Matthew 22:7) because they rejected His Son. Instead of repenting of their unbelief, turning to Jesus, and waiting for Him to come, they invaded the land and continue to reject Christ. Making it worse, Zionist Christians encourage their lie (Revelation 2:9; 3:9), refusing to make them jealous (Romans 11:11), even to the point of telling them that the Jews were not guilty of demanding the crucifixion of the King of Judah, in contradiction of Peter and Paul who laid the guilt at the feet of the Jew (Acts 2:23; 1 Thessalonians 2:14-15).

Thus, if we believe this scenario, there is no need to look for Ezekiel's prophetic invasion in the future, for it has already taken place. Modern Israel was birthed, at least in part, through an invasion by the Ashkenazim (Togarmah) and Sephardim (Judah and Edom) who say they are Jews but are not; they are a synagogue of Satan.

This is modern Zionism. Something to think about!
