11-Year Period and War: Cataclysmic Upheaval to Meltdown

Lately, I have not had much to say about what is going on in the world because nothing has changed to alter or negate what has been posted along these lines. Actually, current events serve to reinforce them. So, in one sense, there is not much new to report. However, what it has led me to do is to search all my insights (including ones not posted) for a pattern that offers a post-2021 narrative. This is what is offered in the following. For those who have followed this site for a while, consider this a review. For those that are new to us, well, this will spare you from having to do a lot of searching (check out the many links included in the following). One thing I am not offering is an in-depth geo-political analysis of events; this is left to those who have the expertise to analyze something as complex as this. I'm simply attempting to put in perspective with current events what I believe has come to me by the spirit of the Lord over many years, even before I had any real knowledge of the subject matter or before it surfaced publicly. With this said...

For those who have been following the prophetic insights that have been posted, it is no secret that I have repeatedly written about a 21-year period (broken into three 7-year periods) that came to an end in 2021. Looking back over this period, clearly it was climaxed with 2021 being the worst of it with events wreaking havoc on global human rights, physical and mental health, supply chains, economies, public trust, and the list goes on. However, the unanswered question last year dealt with what would follow this period. Unfortunately, these worst-case havocs did not end with the stroke of midnight 2022; rather, they have continued and, in some cases, have intensified. I started the year by stating it would be one of crises \(in the plural\), and here we are as we add the crises of run-away inflation, food shortages, excess mortalities, and war.

Unfortunately, making the crises worse, if not creating them in the first place, are the utter failures of Biden and his administration that are right in line with the word given to me on December 20, 2020 that a Biden presidency will be the most failed one in the nation's history ... everything attempted by this administration will fail \(page 2\). Many are now noting this utter failure. This is yet another sign of God continuing to strike His hammer against the heart of the nation.

In Sanctification, I asked: Will 2021 be the beginning of an 11-year period of great disorder and intensified disintegration as the structures of man's kosmos crumble as never seen before in modern history? Yes!

It is now clear to me that we have entered an 11-year period that was previously postulated would be one that moves from cataclysmic upheaval to meltdown. This has been presented in three insights: Worst Year - 2021 / March 11: Economic Crisis / Numbers 18 & 11. The following is an excerpt from these, based on observations involving the month of March and global economies. You are referred to these for further context.

Plainly, there is a pattern to these March events that progresses in severity from a warning (3.11 Titanic sinking) to a crash (3.22 FedEx plane) to a cataclysmic upheaval of the earth on two levels (3.11 Japan quake and tsunami) to a meltdown of a man-made structure (3.22 Japan reactor). These are all connected on a prophetic level, so we should expect to see events occurring along these lines.

Putting aside the actual years, note the 11-day intervals that seem to be in two waves: from a warning to a crash is 11 days; from a cataclysmic upheaval to a meltdown is 11 days. Notice the increase in intensity – a meltdown is greater than a crash. Could it be that we are now in the second wave, which is one of upheaval to meltdown? I've been considering the possibility that, in addition to the three 7-year cycles we've been in since 2000, there might be 11-year cycles beginning in 1999 (1999 to 2010; 2010 to 2021).¹ If so, is there a third cycle running from 2021 to 2032?²

This is the pattern the world has experienced since the turn of the century (and a new millennium). Based on the many dreams and words reported on during this period, I have concluded we are now in a new 11-year period that will be characterized as one that takes the world from cataclysmic upheaval to meltdown. This is God's plan to finish off the kingdoms of the world to make way for the open manifestation of the Kingdom of the Son of His love.

Now, this leads to the matter of war.

To begin, consider this excerpt from Man's Delusional Global Reset that discusses the World Economic Forum (WEF) and United Nations (UN) delusional drive to reset the global order in their own image of godlike status based on technocratism and scientism.

² For those wondering how there could be two different cycles running simultaneously, consider this: We need to view cycles much like Ezekiel's vision of wheels within wheels where the spirit of the living beings was in the wheels. Through the spirit of the Lord, God's plan of the ages—ages made through His Son—includes cycles within cycles. In other words, when it comes to God's cycles, we must not see them linearly, as if one must stop before another begins, for they can run for various lengths of time, signifying various purposes.

With all this said, it is highly doubtful the WEF/UN will succeed in its world takeover. Why? Because there are two other forces in the world that may have other plans and won't be easily persuaded to join the West in its delusional Great Global Reset. They are China and Russia that, no doubt, have an entirely different view of the way the global system should operate. As a minimum, they are looking for a shift in the global power structure—a realignment of the nations where the United States' hegemony is eroded (already happening under Biden) or completely destroyed. Among the nations, apart from the US, China is one of the largest players on the field with the most to gain or to lose. ... Many have been postulating about what role China played in the pandemic. Others suggest that China would have nothing to gain by being complicit in releasing a bioweapon. It is highly doubtful that the question of China's role, if any, will ever be resolved. Given all that is happening in the world, don't overlook this one fact: both China and Russia have military might that includes nuclear weaponry, something the WEF and UN do not have. For these reasons, these two nations present a formidable roadblock to the WEF and they must not be discounted.

Given the last sentence in the above, we can be sure that behind the scenes of the global stage lurks the WEF/UN agenda. The WEF knows these two mighty nations are a roadblock to their global plans and, at some level, what is transpiring between Russia and Ukraine (and, most likely, soon China) is a delusional attempt by the WEF to clear this roadblock.³

Now, consider an excerpt from Signposts of the Coming Kingdom.

On March 8 and April 29, 2013, I dreamed of the Russian army invading some land. I saw submarines involved in the conflict. Exactly one year later, during March 2014, Russian flags were flying over Crimea, the naval port for Russia's Black Sea Fleet. Today, the Ukraine conflict is one of the big news stories.

It is rather curious how Ukraine keeps coming into the news. Most probably have forgotten that it was big news in 2014. In 2016, with the election of Donald Trump, the Ukraine surfaced once again. In 2019, it was again in the forefront as the Democrats tried to remove Donald Trump from office. There must be a hidden agenda behind the relationship of the US with the Ukraine; something nefarious, going back many years, that the powers-to-be (some would call the deep state) do not want to come to the light of day. One guess is that it has to do with waging an unnecessary war against Russia.

What I didn't note in the above and, frankly, I was unaware of until just this week, is that a coup occurred in Ukraine in 2014. As with most anything these days, there are conflicting views as to who was truly behind it and why—something I’m not equipped to sort out. For a journalistic documentary on Ukraine, check out this video: Oliver Stone: Ukraine on Fire - Freedom Of Speech \(fos-sa.org\).

I’ve never reported on this before but the first intimation I received of war with Russia occurred with a dream on August 19, 2002 in which I saw two Americans in Europe. One told the other that “they needed to go home” because nukes were being launched across the Atlantic. The direction of the missiles was not indicated but the obvious inference is that there was an attack against enemies with the likely candidates being the US and Russia. The March 8, 2013 dream (noted above) was not only dramatic but also traumatic as we were caught up in an invasion in which there was a black submarine surfacing in what appeared to be a river and a helicopter rising up. A Russian soldier passed us. I told others to pack up quickly and we drove out a back way to escape. To be honest, in the dream, a sense of dread came over me. In recounting it, I wrote: We don’t have the ability to survive such a thing apart from Christ. Only our Deliverer and Savior can and will save us! I can only hope and pray that both dreams were nightmares that will never happen. However, at a minimum, they serve as a warning of future conflict, one that has now come upon the world as overtures of a world war are being reported more frequently. As for America, our greatest trial is upon us.

I have wondered if any of the above plays into other dreams I have had, for example: Hand Sweeps Across Eastern USA / Wave of Fire. To these I must add several dreams of war with no defined enemies. The good news is that in one case I saw people being resurrected and amputated limbs being reconstituted. On November 2, 2007, I dreamt of dead people with mangled bodies as a result of war. But then, I saw the dead rise up fully healed. I saw a body being reformed and then a man emerging with a big smile. Of course, we cannot rule out a spiritual component to this, but, primarily, it came across to me as the result of a physical war.

This leads to three words that came to me as reported in WW3 China Conflict.

At 2:47 am, on August 17, 2015, I was woken with this word: World War 3 has begun. He (man) has taken his stand in the temple of God.

At 2:57 am, on August 21, 2015, I was once again woken with a word: China is the source of the next major conflict.

At 9:23 pm, on September 7, 2015, I heard: The whole earth will shudder. With this word, I physically felt my body shudder.

The year 2015 is far more important in world history than most realize. Ukraine had just come through a coup with the placement of new leadership. Let us not forget that the Obama/Biden team was still in place and Biden (and his son) had played a role in dealing with Ukraine. Trump was rising to power with a nationalistic determination to make America great at the expense of China. It is now common knowledge (for those who are awake) that Trump was (still is) rattling the nerves of the globalists and their obsession with a global reset built on the back of climate change. The word about China being the source of the next conflict seems to point to the pandemic and the release of a gain-of-function virus from the Wuhan lab that connects to decisions made by Fauci, et al in the US in 2015. Of course, the full story behind all of this has yet to surface in the mainstream media and is now obscured by the Russia-Ukraine war. Clearly, in light of WW3, one thing we must not overlook is the fact that Russia and China are in partnership (recently openly announced). At this point, it is a wait and see regarding China's role in a future kinetic war; however, if the Russia-China partnership holds, there is little doubt they will be on the same side of the conflict.

Take note that no specific nation was credited with starting WW3. Keep in mind that, by definition, a world war involves many nations, especially the most powerful ones. The obvious implication is that WW3 must involve Russia, China, the US, Europe and NATO, and the rest of the Western nations, at a minimum. This war will exceed all previous wars to the point of literally causing the earth to shudder (shake, tremble).

Being so engrossed in the kinetic war that Russia is engaged in with Ukraine can easily blind people to the economic war that Biden has declared and unleashed on Russia without considering the dangerous consequences of his actions both at home and abroad. Unfortunately, all of us will soon feel the full economic impact of his failures. In her failed political ideological thinking, the speaker of the House, Nancy Pelosi, has stated that Biden's strategy is genius. True geo-political experts that are not persuaded by ideology are saying his actions are downright stupid and insane. The question at the moment is how much poking will the "bear" take before it strikes back or will a "false flag" arise to instigate greater conflict, if not all-out kinetic war of the super powers.

The point is that 2015 was a highly significant year, as it set the stage for what we see transpiring seven years later. Unknown to many, WW3 began in 2015. Wars take on many forms and generally there are events that build over time, well before the first shot is fired to start a kinetic war. Russia has fired the first kinetic shot in respect to Ukraine. Biden has fired the first economic shot, thus engaging the world, especially the US, in this dispute. Again, will this spill over into an all-out kinetic war and, if so, when?

This leads to the latest word that came to me, as reported in Massive Event is Coming. On October 3, 2021, at 12.17 am, I was woken from sleep with this word: A massive event is coming. Watch and you will see it build. Warn of its arrival. Hearing the word massive in the night is a first for me, making it rather unusual. So, it definitely got my attention. Warning of its arrival means what is coming is not good. Given the news since the start of 2022, without doubt, it is building. Although we cannot rule out a natural disaster or release of a deadly bioweapon across the globe as a massive event, without further input, it appears the most likely scenario is that it will be in relation to WW3.

I'm not going to belabor the point, for the implications are obvious. We have moved into a period that takes the world from cataclysmic upheaval to meltdown. Of course, at any point in this decade, God can intervene to either abruptly change the course of history or ameliorate it to make it a bit more tolerable. However, at this point, I have no word or indication along these lines. The shakable structures of man must crumble, and so they will. Let us rejoice that it must be so in order to remove the foundations of sand of the world order and build a truly new order, a divine one, built on the one, solid rock foundation of God's Son, along with the many sons of glory transformed into His image.

As dire as this might seem, there is always the good news of the Kingdom of God. We are on the final stretch to the end of this age and the open manifestation of God's Kingdom and the Presence of His King, our Lord Jesus. Surely, this is what lies at the end of this period in 2032. Keep in mind that this is the Final Battle for Humanity and the King of All is in this battle, and we know that He does not and will not fail to fulfill what His Father has given Him to do. The question is what part will the Anointed Body of the Anointed One—the Christ—play in this period of meltdown. I will not waver to remind the Lord's people that we have the anointing, the spirit of truth, within us because we have Christ in us, the expectation of glory. The anointing will only get stronger in those called and chosen in this day.

So, pray for the anointing; the future of humanity depends on it, not on us per se, but on the One who resides in us! King Jesus is the Rescuer of the World! He is raising up His Anointed Body to be part of the rescue mission.

Let us not forget that, as the sons of God, we are called to be the peacemakers. Looking across the global landscape of nations, the world has a great deficit of peacemakers when it comes to world leaders. There is no greater time in the history of the world than now for a company of peacemakers to be raised up in the full anointing of the Anointed One, the Prince of Peace. Our battle is the War of Peace.⁴

Our Victor is the King of Righteousness and Peace! His name is Jesus.
