Update: 2015 Beginning of WW3

In 2015, I knew practically nothing about the geo-political climate of the world. Simply, war was not on my radar. However, the last insight on cataclysmic upheaval to meltdown recounted the word I received in August 2015 that World War 3 had begun.

Three points: First, wars are not limited to military conflicts; they can take on any number of forms. Second, military (kinetic) wars are often preceded by events and actions that build toward open conflict. These events can be both overt and covert. Third, war is a horrendous way for nations to solve conflict. There is nothing more destructive than war as it takes lives and ruins whole nations. The ones most affected by war are the people on the streets that have no say or vote in going to war. The few who strive for power and control bring utter destruction on the many. This is said for those who are calling for greater military build-up in the European theater that could soon be engulfed in war. These are such obvious maxims that even stating them seems unnecessary; yet, given how uninformed so many are in this day of social-media obsession, they need to be highlighted.

Now, I want to offer links to others that support some of what was presented in the last insight but before doing so, a brief word about the proposed 11-year periods is in order, especially the second of the three periods that started in 2010. It was around this year that I began hearing many warnings from what I believe to have come from the spirit of the Lord. In 2012, I began to specifically hear of war.

On August 3, 2012, I heard:

My people are hewing cisterns broken, broken cisterns¹ that have holes. They cannot hold water. What good is My spirit in such vessels. The flesh must be dealt with first. My spirit will cut away these cisterns of man.

War is coming, but it is not the final one of this age. People will think “this was not so bad”, but they will be deceived. This is only a foretaste. Man’s heart is evil, and by his pride and arrogance the sword will come again. Then know that I am right at the door.

Although I haven't been able to locate the exact date, also around this time, I heard that there would be two wars with the second one being the worst and that the US and Israel would suffer defeat.

On August 4, 2012, I heard: America will not turn to Me on her own accord. Then, on August 28, 2012, I heard: A heart bomb is going to kill thousands. Given the sophisticated weaponry that the nations have conjured up to kill people, it would not be a surprise if this literally comes about.

On January 15, 2013, I was given a vision of a boiling pot, which is now reaching its boiling point. Metaphorically speaking, this is comparable to a meltdown.

Then, in a sadly strange way, it was revealed to my wife and me that peace was being removed from the world, prophetically linked to the start of WW1. War is always an antithesis to peace. On June 28, 2013, a wonderful sister in the Lord, a mother of three, who lived in Ghana, died. We personally knew and fondly remember her wonderful laugh and big smile. We miss her greatly. Her name was Peace. Some years later, I realized that Peace died on the 99th anniversary of the start² of the two world wars (June 28, 1914). In a prophetic way, in my journal, I wrote: Peace is dead.

On November 17, 2014, I heard: War is coming. Then, exactly nine months later, on August 17, 2015, I heard WW3 had begun. As pointed out in the last insight, during 2015, the stage was being set for the release of a bioweapon that has traumatized the world since 2020. This has been and continues to be part of this war.

Now, seven years later, while scouring the news, I am seeing articles on Ukraine referencing the period of 2014-2015. Here is a secular link that appeared back in January 2022 but came to the forefront this week, as an example of covert action that began during this period.

CIA-trained Ukrainian paramilitaries may take central role if Russia invades \(yahoo.com\)

Fast forward seven years and here is a secular link for where we are as of now and where this could be headed.

² Actions taken against Germany at the end of WW1 led to the rise of Hitler and WW2, so the two great wars were linked, with the second being the worst of the two.

Two thoughts: First, more than likely, there will be some twists and turns in what is coming, so don't look at events linearly (see bottom paragraph page 1). There could be pauses and lulls in events. We could even see the Ukrainian war cease for a period, followed by an escalation of war.

Second, perhaps this is hopeful thinking, but a world war may not reach the point of an all-out "hot" (i.e., kinetic) war, as it is called. With the interconnection and integration of the global order, there are many ways to go after one's enemies, based on the endpoint being sought. Is it simply to cut down a nation, or is it to occupy and bring it under the control of the victor? Why destroy the infrastructure and resources of a nation if the intent is to permanently occupy it? If the intent is to seize the nation for its land and resources, it's logical that preserving as much of the nation as possible is a far better option. Bringing about financial collapse, economic isolation (i.e., harsh sanctions), halting the internet, shutting down key power grids for an extended period, or releasing a bioweapon to depopulate a nation or to dramatically increase illness among certain segments of the population could be called a war, one that doesn't require a single shot to be fired. Of course, we hear a lot these days about possible cyber-attacks, which could bring about these and other crippling results, not only on single nations but the entire global integrated system. Consequently, a lot depends on the motives of the aggressor nation(s) (or: individuals and their organizations; e.g., World Economic Forum) driving the war.

The world order is highly complex with the dark force of evilism lurking at every turn. Consequently, we need to be open to any number of scenarios playing out in this final war of the world. Of course, the worst-case scenario is that all of the above options come into play to bring this age to an end.

However, as bad as all this sounds, there is good news. Actually, there's great news! God's plan is what counts the most, and His plan is not to destroy His very good creation but to transform it into His new creation, filled with His glory. This is the very heart of His creative love for that which He has brought into being. What we are living through today (and in the days to come) is NOT leading to the end of the world, the end of time, or the annihilation of the human race.

The message I have been given is like a two-edged sword. Both edges speak to what is coming. One side speaks to the fall of our present world system, which is essential for what the other side speaks—the presence of God's Son and the open manifestation of His kingdom.

In the above vision, out from the boiling pot appeared the Lord Jesus with His arms stretched out, beckoning all to come to Him. So, when the pot of our day boils over, know that King Jesus is very near.

The world system that we have all lived under since the end of WW2 must yield to the new world order of God's Son and the many sons of glory. Only God knows how to bring down our current world order (the present heaven and earth order) to usher in the open manifestation of the new creation order (the new heaven and earth order). Be assured, God will bring the post-WW2 order to its rightful conclusion, all to His glory. Father knows best!

The way forward may be rough going for many. In the midst of trial, let us hold to the expectation (hope) of glory that resides in us because the Son of glory resides in us. Reminder: the same spirit that raised Jesus from the dead is in us. The power of His resurrection is in all who have been given the faith of Christ. Let us hold fast in His faith and His joy that was set before Him as He submitted Himself to the cross, knowing that whatever happens to us personally (our cross), we have within us the very same power that raised Jesus from the dead and the same joy that drove Him to the cross. The anointed of the Anointed One are rising up and a new day is getting ready to dawn!

To reiterate: all that is transpiring is leading to the presence of the Son of God, King Jesus, who is the rightful heir of the nations and the possessor of the earth! The doors have been opened and our king is standing. The King and His kingdom are coming!

Don't fear what comes upon the nations or even us personally. Let's not let our spiritual guard down. Hold fast to the Head, our Lord Jesus. Rejoice in the Lord, for He is coming!
