

Your message burns in my heart and bones, and I cannot keep silent. (Jeremiah 20:9)

The testimony of JESUS is the spirit of the prophecy. (Revelation 19:10c)

by – Stuart H. Pouliot

08.14.2012/03.21.2022

kingdomandglory.com

This is Good! ... I Felt Peaceful! (2012)

As with the last posting, Removing the Impurities \(2012\), the following was documented in 2012 but never posted. This too supports Spiritual Infirmary in the Body of Christ.

On August 13, 2012, I started the day feeling pretty strong in spirit; yet, as the day wore on, it seemed as if a dark cloud had come over it. We prayed, but it did not dissipate.

Later in the day, I did a very brief study of American church history from the 18th to the 20th centuries. This was fascinating, but it left me perplexed and wondering. All I could see was confusion over how many divergent views the American church has held and divided over during this time, and today is no different. Some might see it as progress and growth, but I saw it as confusion, especially when these views, in some measure, run from A-Z.

I began crying out to the Lord—a Lament 101 moment: Why have You allowed it to be this way? Why all the confusion and differences? Why should I even try to reach people with what I believe You have shown me? How is this going to be resolved? Finally, my cry simply ended with: Lord, help!

So, this was the day leading up to bedtime. Around 11:50 pm, as I slept, I dreamt the following:

A train was moving very fast, going from left to right. Its lights were a blur as it passed in my vision. However, during the dream, I realized that my left shoulder was in pain, actually very severe pain. This was no dream. I woke up with the pain, knowing my body had gone through some sort of trauma, so I prayed. Shortly thereafter the pain left, and I fell back to sleep but not very soundly. Throughout the night, I cried out to the Lord for help.

Interpretation

The speed of the train signifies that what I was about to be shown would occur swiftly. Keep in mind, however, that for the Lord, swiftness often translates into years. The train jostling back and forth signifies the concern I had over the confusion and many differences among the Lord's people that, most likely, blurs the Light of the world—meaning that the Lord Jesus has lost His distinctiveness among His people. The shoulder pain means that a burden of the Lord had been placed upon me—the Body of Christ has an infirmity.

However, although the initial pain was severe, even traumatic, it left and I was led into something good. The night was not over. Peace came in the morning.

I fell into a deep sleep and, as dawn approached on August 14, 2012, I had five dreams; one after the other, with no interruption. I recalled them upon waking, so this was a good sign that they were of a spiritual nature. Here they are...

#1: I saw a house, but there was something wrong with it and it had to be fixed. No one told me this; I just knew it. I saw a slender man with a reddish-brown beard building a fire along one of the interior walls in the basement. This was part of the fix. However, with my safety background, I was concerned over the fire, so I said to the man: Be careful you don't burn it down. Then, I saw the outside of the building. It looked sort of like a place in which we had met with some brethren for many years, but it was not the building.¹ The interesting thing about the building was that all the siding had been removed. So, the building experienced fire in the basement and the removal of its siding.

A thought came to me: This is good. I felt peaceful.

#2: Next, I saw a series of incidents that were going wrong, but then they were all fixed. I was given the impression that the Lord stepped in and made them right without anyone's help.

This too is good. I felt peaceful.

#3: Then, from an elevated position, I saw a road that was greatly congested; it was packed with cars for miles. This road was part of a four-way intersection leading to a bridge. Then, I found myself on one of the roads that was not congested.

Again, I thought: This is good. I felt peaceful.

#4: Next, I was at the intersection and about to head to a new destination. I had some cash on me but had given most of it away. I wondered if there was enough in my pocket for what was before me, but then realized I could use a debit card (not credit card).

This too is good. I felt peaceful.

#5: Finally, I was driving down a major highway that had no exits. I knew I would have to travel 2000 miles, even 3,000 miles to find a way off it, knowing that I had to reverse direction to go the opposite way. Then, all of a sudden, I was driving in the other direction

¹ The similarity signified that the dream was about the Lord's house.

and knew that I had not done this on my own. There was no way I had found an exit and changed direction to the other side of the highway. One minute I was going one way and the next I was going the other way. Then, the thought came: The Lord did it! I was given the impression that this happened two times, although I only saw it once.

I thought: This is good! I felt very peaceful.

Interpretation

All five dreams are connected and present the same encouraging theme that yielded a peacefulness. There was no fear, no anxiety, no trauma; just peace. All was good. The number 5 is significant in that it signifies grace. This is the fruit of grace.

On the 13th, I was stirred up over the condition of the church and what could be done about it. On the 14th, I was in near perfect peace. All was good. Why? The answer is discovered in two simple words: But God!² He alone is going to fix everything, right it, changing course to the right direction. This is the message He sent me in these five dreams.

Dream #1: The Lord Jesus is going to bring the fire of His word on His house, the church, and strip away the façade of religion and hypocrisy, confusion, etc. He alone is going to fix His church. Note that the fire was started in the basement, the lowest region of a house, nearest the foundation. Christ is the only foundation. The fire of the Lord is going to burn up all that is not of His life. Even that which is built upon Christ as the foundation will be burned up if it is not of His life. Christ is all in all, and God's consuming fire will see to it that nothing remains that is not of His life. There is only one foundation and one building that matters to God. The entire structure must be and will be built entirely of His Son.

Dream #2: Again, the Lord is going to fix all wrongs in His church. He is the fixer. Jesus declared: I will build My ecclesia!

Dream #3: The congestion signifies confusion, meaning there are many viewpoints and positions (emphases, teachings, doctrines, etc.) in the church, but the Lord is going to deal with all of this. The intersection signifies there are many paths to follow; however, the bridge signifies a crossing over to the way forward (road) that is not congested (in confusion). It is the right way to go. The Lord Himself is going to decongest His people, ² The expression But God or But of God appears several times in scripture: Genesis 8:1; 21:12; 45:8; 48:21; 2 Chronicles 20:15; Psalm 49:15; 73:26; 75:7; John 1:12-13; Acts 2:24; Romans 5:8; 1 Corinthians 3:6; Ephesians 2:4.

clearing the way for them to cross over into His glory. This is a reminder of the experience my wife and I had on July 21, 2012 about looking for the signs and crossing over.

Dream #4: The debit card indicates that one has money (resources) in the bank from which to draw, as opposed to a credit card that involves borrowed money. So, this pertains to money in the bank, so to speak. With so many people concerned about the economy and the collapse of the financial system, it seems that the Lord gave me peace that He is going to right this, as well. God is in control, even in the midst of a global system that seems ready to implode. However, there is a much deeper spiritual meaning.

The Lord asks: Where is your treasure? (Matthew 6:20-21). Paul told Timothy to instruct those rich in this present world not to fix their hope on the uncertainty of riches, but on God, who richly supplies us with all things to enjoy (1 Timothy 6:17). The dream is not about physical money. It is about drawing all our resources from God's account, which is unlimited. It's all there in His account; all we have to do is draw from His infinite supply. But what is the nature of this account? Paul was called to preach to the nations the unfathomable riches of Christ (Ephesians 3:8). The Father's account is His Son! For this reason, Paul tells us to seek above where Christ is seated. Let us draw from the unfathomable riches of Christ.

Dream #5: Although the current direction of the church seems locked in a direction with no way out, the Lord is going to change the direction of His church and send her in the right direction. There is no way the church can make an about face on her own; only the Lord can do this by His spirit and His fiery word. God is going to do it! The fact that this occurred twice indicates that there is a witness from the Lord that this shall be done. On the evidence of two or three witnesses a matter shall be confirmed (Deuteronomy 19:15). This matter is confirmed.

It is possible that the numbers 2,000 and 3,000 are significant, as well. It has been 2,000 years since the literal arrival of Jesus. We are now in the third millennium—the time in which we expect the open manifestation of the Kingdom of God. This should remind us of a word spoken through Hosea (6:1-3) that, in its embryonic form, speaks of Jesus in the tomb for two days and being raised on the third. The good news is that when He rose from the grave on the third day, He brought forth a new creation—a people “producing the fruit” of the Kingdom of God. Now, 3,000 years later (another third day, only on a grander scale, no longer in mystery), this new creation is about to manifest to the world with the glorious arrival of God's Son, King Jesus—the one who brings forth many sons, leading to the glory of the Lord filling the entire earth.

HELP is on the way! Peace be with you!