2010-2012 Insights—Meltdown & America's Destiny

I have postulated we have entered into the third set of 11-year periods, dating back to 1999, signifying the world going from warning and crash (1999-2010) to cataclysmic upheaval (2010-2021) to meltdown (2021-2032). In my estimation, we have now entered the meltdown phase. However, please understand that this breakdown (like the 21-year cycle) is merely a convenience to mark what has been transpiring since the turn of the century and where the world is headed.

It's hardly necessary to state the obvious, but I will anyway. There is a vast array of views, opinions, predictions, speculations, forecasts, models, and prophesies about the future based on any number of analyses. There is so much of this at our disposal through the internet that it is a challenge to sort through it all for some sense of where the truth lies. Do not be deceived; truth has stumbled in the streets—truth is under siege.¹ The US, in particular, is under attack, not by guns but by propaganda being paraded as truth and truth being portrayed and censored as mis-dis-information. Make no mistake about it; there is an underlying agenda to all of this and it is not good. Most of what is called news, especially that which is spun out of the establishment (mainstream, legacy) media, is not based in objective investigation but is informational propaganda to instill a certain narrative in the mind of a naïve public. Even some (most?) of the fact checkers are part of the propaganda war. Propaganda is a deception of lies! We have witnessed this in grand style for the last two years regarding covid, and it continues on with the Russia-Ukraine war. The propaganda engine (media) has been at full throttle. These are extremely dangerous days.

As Christians, we must not stick our heads in the sand and ignore what's going on, but we must also be cautious in how we view these things in light of scripture. As Paul would say, we must walk, not as the unwise, but as the wise. When Jesus sent His disciples out, He told them: Behold, I send you out as sheep in the midst of wolves; so be shrewd as serpents and innocent as doves (Matthew 10:16). Of course, that was for a certain time and for a specific reason, but is it really any different today? Wolves abound as they attempt to drive the world into a new world order of their making, mostly at the expense of the majority of us. These wolves have taken their stand in the temple, posing as self-made, self-absorbed gods who, in their delusional minds, deceptively claim they know what is best for humanity, without truly caring what happens to the vast majority of humanity.

If you don't already know it, it is time to wake up to the fact that the underlying agenda of all this propaganda is to bring about a new world order and not the Kingdom of God. Just this week, in his speech at the Business Roundtable, Biden said that the US must lead the world into a new world order. Here is what he said: And now's the time when things are shifting. We're going, there's gonna be a new world order out there and we've got to lead it and we've got to unite the rest of the free world and doing it.

For those who don't realize it, this is not some novel idea. In the 1990s, the 41st president, George H.W. Bush, spoke several times about a new world order. But the real tell came about under Obama in 2015 when he signed the US onto the United Nations' Agenda 2030. Biden is merely reiterating what Obama did when he was in office. Biden's slogan Build Back Better is not some political idiomatic tripe. It is the same slogan used by the World Economic Forum that seeks for a global reset (aka, new world order) and the United Nations that seeks to run the world.

Under Obama, the White House issued a Fact Sheet titled: U.S. Global Development Policy and Agenda 2030, dated September 27, 2015. Here is the opening statement:

2015 is a pivotal year for global development. World leaders gathered in New York today to adopt the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development ("2030 Agenda"). The adoption of the 2030 Agenda, which sets out a global development vision and priorities for the next 15 years, captures the hopes and ambitions of people around the globe for meaningful change and progress, including here in the United States.

This so-called Fact Sheet uses terms like health security, food security, gender equality, and climate change. Granted, it offers some noble causes, such as ending extreme poverty and leaving no one behind; however, when it is joined with a drive for a new world order, one has to question how noble this agenda truly is and what the cost to liberty and freedom will be.

There is something quite significant about this White House press release that I did not know until today. It is the year 2015—the same year I was told that WW3 had begun.² I submit that this must now be added to the evidence that a world war began in 2015. Global development, wrapped up in lofty and noble goals, is being used to drive toward a new world order. Most definitely, 2015 was a pivotal year.

² See: 11-Year Period and War and Update: 2015 Beginning of WW3.

Now, seven years later, the powers-to-be behind Biden are announcing to the world that we are at an inflection point, meaning dramatic change is upon us.³ So we are, but not in the way they see it. The hand of God is upon the world situation, and the antichrist globalists that have taken their stand as gods in the temple of God are under His judgment.⁴ Ultimately, they will fail!

As far back as the 1990s, the spirit of the Lord began telling me to be on the lookout for this day. And so, it has begun!

I must confess that there have been many days that I have questioned whether what has come to me during these many years has been from the Lord. However, as I have studied all the words, dreams, and visions that I have documented and have been matched to the news of this day, along with commentary by others that are using the very language (words) the Lord has used to communicate with me⁵, all doubt has been removed that this is the message I have been given to deliver in this late hour of our present age. The history behind what I write today is vital to this message and it is for this reason that I provide many links to past insights—they are all connected at some level.

In this regard, quite a bit was communicated to me during the period of 2010-2012, at the beginning of the 11-year period of upheaval. Of special note is what I heard about the future of America. Here are some insights received during this period, some of which have been reported in other articles.

June 24, 2010: America is going into the greatest trial she has ever faced. It will seem as if all hope is lost and she will not make it. But then, the light of My glory will shine upon her and she will turn to see Me in the face of My chosen. The times surely will change. It is coming. No man can stop what is coming upon not only America but all the nations. The earth will teeter but I will right her.

June 29, 2010 (dream): *Supreme Court building was floating down the Potomac River with the right side leaning in the water and the left side rising up above it.*⁶

July 26, 2010: Great deception is whirling around the globe, like a great whirlwind.

³ This is not the first time Biden has used the expression inflection point. He did so before the UN on September 21, 2021.

⁵ Example: On March 25, 2022, referring to world events, a journalist wrote that all the pots are coming to a boil at once. See: Boiling Pot, Ancient Book, Light, Jesus.

⁶ See: SCOTUS Building Floating Down Potomac. Consider this in light of the current Biden nomination for Supreme Court justice and the Senate inquiry taking place this week (week of March 21, 2022).

November 29, 2010: Woes have come!

June 8, 2011: *Engedi!*⁷

July 1, 2011 (dream): *I saw a McDonald's Happy Meal box, but in it was a measly hamburger, no bun, only a piece of thin meat with a lot of filler. It did not look very appetizing.*⁸

Put together, these are a clear message regarding America's future (as well as the world's), both its trial to remove the chaff and its destiny with glory. This will come during a time of great deception sweeping across the earth. Undoubtedly, our nation will be quite different after this trial. We can only surmise, but it probably will not be organized or operated in the same way as it is today, and it probably won't have the same borders and divisions or even be called the United States. Why? Because it's destiny, along with all the nations of the world, is the Kingdom of God. We won't be looking back to our Founding Fathers and the US Constitution. We will be looking unto King Jesus and His Kingdom of Righteousness, Justice, Peace, Life, and Love.

As stressed many times, the world is not facing extinction, and time and history are not about to end. Undoubtedly, we are in for some more rough times, even times of suffering. The good news is that when the dust settles, the very character of God's kingdom will break forth and reign upon the earth. Or, as Isaiah tells us:

Drip, you heavens, from above, and the skies shall distil (rain down) righteousness. The earth shall open, and it shall bud salvation. And righteousness shall sprout together with it, I, Yahweh, create it. (Isaiah 45:8 CLV)

Now, there is much more that could be reported on from the 2010-2014 period. If you haven't noticed, several of the most recent insights I've posted recount what came to me during 2012—probably the most prolific year for hearing from the Lord during this period. Ten years later, it seems clear to me that all of this communication was necessary prior to the announcement of 2015 and the subsequent unveiling of events that have occurred since then to substantiate that the world is at war.

⁷ America is headed toward an Engedi moment, specifically designed and planned for a country that has stopped trusting in God, instead has trusted in its own strength and might. The day is coming when a leader will cry out to God as Jehoshaphat did when faced with a million plus army at his doors. See: Engedi Moment is Coming.

⁸ A clear message that food shortages and famines are coming. Today, some are warning of food shortages, not only due to war in Ukraine but also due to climate change (cooling, not warming), supply chain disruptions, and greater global conflict.

Here is a further selection of 2012 communications that support the message I have been given to deliver. These should be enough to make the point that the day I was told was coming has now come upon America and the world.

January 17, 2012: Pray for what is coming upon your nation. Pray for mercy. ... My hand has been withdrawn. Judgment has come in greater measure. The wisdom of man is foolishness.

March 10, 2012: *Turmoil and chaos are coming. ... Look up. Do not be dismayed.*⁹ ...

My church will be crying out for deliverance, but its heart will not be to see Me. Hold fast to your hope. I am coming. Proclaim it! ...

The world must be brought to the point of utter desperation before it will turn. I love the world, but it needs to be awakened, not by a people living in the miraculous (this will come) but by a people who have no place to turn but to the Almighty God.

April 3, 2012: I am coming, but before I do, there is a great shaking coming. Desperation must come.

April 5, 2012 (dream): A huge wall of frothy water came upon and inundated the Statue of Liberty. It was so huge that the statue looked like one of those souvenirs that you buy in tourist shops.

April 20, 2012 (dream): *I was holding several pages of prophecy. I was reading these with difficulty to a small group. I was not sure if they were in agreement or even understood what I was sharing with them.*¹⁰ Then, I saw a map of the USA with the Mississippi River. It was as if I saw a hand sweep across the eastern half of the country from the river and then I heard: "Whole east coast will be wiped out." Later, I was told that the prophecies in my hand would explain the dream.

July 2, 2012: I inquired of the Lord what is needed to be ready for what is coming. I heard: You cannot. No one can prepare for what is coming. ... Fix your gaze upon Me. Look to Me. Only I can and will bring you through the dark hour that is coming. No man can do it. Your silver and gold (i.e., metaphor for resources) will not do it. Your strength will not do it. Enduring in My life is the only way. ... Many will die. ... My glory is coming.

⁹ The definition of dismay is to make afraid or discouraged at the prospect of danger or trouble; fill with apprehension or alarm. The noun form is loss of courage or confidence at the prospect of trouble or danger; consternation.

¹⁰ Probably the reason for me to continually drive the message. Are people understanding it?

July 3, 2012: Heaven waits! I inquired: Waits for what? The answer: To come to earth! ...

The heart of America must be circumcised. Pain will come, but it will produce the heart of a nation fully yielded to Me.

November 7, 2012: America will be brought into death and then rise up in glory.

November 21, 2012: Disaster is coming the likes of which you have never seen, but you are protected. ... Night has come!

Much more could be shared, but this is enough to provide a broad stroke of the day in which we now live and what we face going forward. In spite of what appears to be bad news, we must never forget that we are victorious (more than conquerors) through Him who loves us. As if to impress this fact on me, during 2013, I had several dreams along the line of victory, such as flying through the air and defeating evil powers, and of the Lord sending angels to protect His people. So, please don't despair. Abide in Christ! Make Jesus your home!

All this is shared not to cause fear and anxiety but to offer hope that, in His love for this world, God is in control and His plan is to burn up all the chaff in it, causing the shakable structures of man to crumble, with a glorious purpose in mind—to usher in the Kingdom of the Son of His love for all the world to see and to experience. In and through His judgments, our Creator God of love is bringing His very good creation into the glory of His new creation, which has been the destiny of earth since before the laying of its foundation.

With this perspective, meltdown is not only a good thing—it is a necessity.

God tells us what is coming (in a broad outline, not necessarily in detail) not to scare us but to encourage us to press on toward the goal that He has set before us. Just so you don't miss it—the goal is His Son, coming into sonship in the image of the Son of God.

Be assured; the King's presence will soon manifest, along with the many sons of glory!

Heaven is coming to earth once again in a powerful way, only this time, heaven will openly manifest in union with the material earth and its inhabitants. The two shall become one! God's will, will be done on earth as it is done in heaven. This is the Kingdom of God!
