

Your message burns in my heart and bones, and I cannot keep silent. (Jeremiah 20:9)

The testimony of JESUS is the spirit of the prophecy. (Revelation 19:10c)

by – Stuart H. Pouliot

04.30.2017/02.12.2021

kingdomandglory.com

Great Awakening of Our True Identity (Word)

The following word came to me on April 30, 2017.

In the midst of great turmoil and confusion will come a great awakening of My chosen ones. They will awaken to their true identity. The blinders will come off; the scales will fall—they will see.

Along with this came a word from the heart of David, a man after God's own heart: Awake, my glory! I will awaken the dawn! (Psalm 57:8).

To my knowledge, this is the first time of sharing this 2017 word; however, in many respects, it is not new, as the spirit of the Lord began to lead me down this path back in 2016 when I was told *the future of humanity is in the balance; pray for the anointing*. Subsequently, I wrote two more insights (*Pegasus, the Gushing Fountain* and *Upwelling—The Gushing Fountain*), elaborating on the anointing, which, in turn, led to the *Final Battle for Humanity*.

Before jumping into the awakening, a word about the great turmoil and confusion. The word turmoil is probably a merger of two words: trumel (old French) that means tumult, noisy, quarreling, and moil that means commotion, uproar, confusion, with an added meaning of working very hard at something difficult, as if it is drudgery.

Considering the day in which we live, it doesn't take much imagination to see that there is great turmoil and confusion on many levels, some of which I have elaborated on in other insights. When the word came to me in 2008 that *tumult is coming* (and repeated to me during the period of 2012-2014), I had no idea what this would look like. Frankly, I thought it would manifest as another financial crisis (hold on, another one is coming) or a combination of institutional and natural crumbling of structures (hold on, these too are coming), but who of us anticipated the tumult and confusion we are facing on so many fronts today? Is it necessary to elaborate on the confusion created by the pseudo-science coming from the establishment of so-called medical and science experts, as they, along with political leaders and a complicit media that don't question these so-called experts, coerce the general public into obeying their demands? Sadly, it would appear that many don't even know there is confusion, as they simply obey whatever changes (aka "new norms") they are demanded to make; mind you, all for the common good. Forget logic; forget true science: "Wear a mask for others, if you don't, then you are selfish, and while you're at it, wear two or three masks" is the mantra. Such narrative is ill-informed, at best, and psychotic, at worst. We help one another by being informed through the true science and not giving into fear.

As the world—out of fear, blind obedience, and, frankly, ignorance—continues to acquiesce to the demands of the global establishment; as the elites seek to reset the global order, driving toward their transhuman image, what about us who belong to the Lord Jesus? Are we to be living in fear or in ignorance, or to be blinded by man's authoritarianism, driven by lies and dangerous ideologies and technocracy? Like sheep, are we to follow the crowd, or, perhaps, follow those who decide to revolt against this new order? Of course, the answer to these questions lies in the one who is the Way, the Truth, and the Life, who we know and believe in as God's Son, our Lord Jesus; and this, in turn, leads to the great awakening that is coming upon God's chosen ones during the darkest hour of the close of our present age.

Three points...

First, please don't get uptight about the expression chosen ones and start questioning if you are one or not. It's an expression for those who belong to the Lord Jesus, not a doctrine of who is in and who is out among His people. Loosen your grip on doctrine and let faith and life reign.

Second, we cannot bring about this great awakening; only the spirit of God can and will. This is said for those who are constantly striving to do and be something for God. Relax! It will come in God's appointed time and in His appointed way and for His appointed purpose to close out this age. Until then, what we must do is come into agreement with God that we need to be awakened.

Third, the word awakening means "the act of awaking from sleep" or "an arousing from what is like sleep; a revival of interest, or attention to, what has been neglected." The great awakening is nothing like the revivals of old, nor is it an outpouring of the holy spirit, as some claim is coming. What is coming is an upwelling of the seed of God hidden within our earthen vessel that has been growing and maturing. Consequently, the awakening is two-fold. First, it is an awakening to our true identity in Christ that has been ours and resided within us all along. We need to be awakened to "who and what" we are in God's Son, for we have been asleep to our true identity, whether from neglect, lack of revelation, or, perhaps, blindness brought upon us by God. Second, when we are awakened, we will be living expressions of this true identity. It's not about some new doctrine or wearing some new label, like a name badge. No; the awakening is about a 24/7 walk in the spirit. What will shock us is the fact that this is who we have been all along. We have seen it in scripture and, in some cases, enshrined it in doctrine for years, and yet have only partially and often only momentarily experienced it. The awakening is experiencing spiritual life in fulness. How or why we got to this place might be of interest to us, but given the lateness of the hour, it is best to heed Jesus' word that putting one's hand to a plow and looking back makes one unfit for the Kingdom of God. It is time to keep our eyes on the Kingdom of our Lord and of His Christ. Don't look back; press on toward the goal for the prize!

I must confess that as I began writing this, I had planned to offer some thoughts about what this might look like, but I soon sensed I was simply to report on this word without a whole lot of elaboration, at least at this time. What I can say is I have no doubt that being imagers of Elohim, anointed ones, saints in light, and new creations in Christ, along with a conscious union with the loving heart of our Creator and a full engagement with the mind of Christ will be instrumental in this awakening. It will truly be along the lines of experientially knowing the power of His resurrection and life, according to the spirit of holiness that raised Jesus from among the dead!

Be encouraged with the words of our beloved Lord Jesus.

"I am the Resurrection and the Life. He who is believing in Me, even if he should be dying, shall be living. And everyone who is living and believing in Me, should by no means be dying for the eon. Are you believing this?" (John 11:25-26 CLV [bold added])

In light of this truth, let us be like David and speak to the treasure hidden in our earthen vessel: Awake, my glory! And, may we, in faith, proclaim: I will awaken the dawn; the dawn of God's Age!