Open Door in Empty Room (Dream)

I'm somewhat late in posting a dream that came on February 28, 2021. In retrospect, the delay was of the Lord, for there were a few things I had to see that connect to this dream. Timing and process is always important. I'll explain, but first the dream...

We [my wife and I] were in a room that was totally empty and had no windows; it only had one doorway (portal) in the far-left corner. But instead of seeing a closed door, we saw no door, just a doorway filled with light, meaning the door was open. As we gazed upon this, we became very excited. Why! We were expecting, not simply wishing, but knowing the Lord Jesus was about to come through the opening. We were close to tears with joy and reverence (like the fear of God). Maranatha!

We have been longing for the Lord for forty years, and this is the first dream, to my recollection, of having a heightened expectation that Jesus is about to come through the portal of His Father's realm.

The empty room indicates that there is nothing left on earth; there are no more attractions or distractions. It is all gone. The windowless room indicates there is no view of earth that matters anymore. There is no way in or out of the room except through this one door. The only thing that matters is who is standing outside the open door. Jesus is standing at the threshold!

The present tense is purposely used, for this is a present reality, not one that is far off into the future.

This dream is a fulfillment of one that I previously reported on that came on January 8, 2019. Rather than link it, here it is.

I was in a building that held the Lord's people. It was dark and seemed to be filled with weeds or tangled material of some kind. The people were being held captive. I had a sense of danger that the people needed to be set free. However, I had no fear. I then began running along the inside of this building, along a wall, until I saw large double doors (much like seen in a large department store). As I ran toward these doors, I saw light shining outside the doors as the building was in darkness. As I continued toward the doors, I suddenly raised my arms high up in the air and yelled out: "In the name of Jesus, the doors shall be opened.” There was no doubt in my proclamation. It was a command that it would be done. I knew it was a declaration of setting the Lord’s people free.

As shared in the post, a brother in Christ offered this interpretation.

Now, to what I see as one possible interpretation of your dream. The world has gone dark. It is very dark. This is the room. The Lord’s people are in there also, because we are all in this darkness. It is up to us to follow Jesus. And you aren’t afraid, nor should you be! You ran down the wall, and I got the impression that you were looking for a way out of the darkness. The vines are black too, because everything that is presently growing is darkness and blindness. Everything is part of the lie; even often what we presume to be growth! Yeast has permeated everything! Most of the Lord’s people have been fooled by the darkness and they think that it is normal. The door represents Jesus, and He is the only way to find the light because He IS the light. You reached out for the Door and the light, and began running for them, prophetically proclaiming, “In the name of Jesus, the doors shall be opened!” And they will be opened! The light is shining through the glass right now for those that have eyes to see, and these doors will open at the Second Coming. You never reached them because the Coming is not yet, but when they open, the world will be flooded with light!

So, in 2019, the doors were closed but there was light on the other side and, in the spirit, the proclamation went out for them to open; and now the one door is open and light is shining through it. There is only one thing left to fulfill these two dreams, and that is for our Lord Jesus to appear in the door and to walk through it.

Why double doors and now just one door? Perhaps, it indicates the door of opportunity to receive King Jesus as a son of the Kingdom has narrowed and the time is almost up. It should remind us of the gate is small and the way is narrow that leads to life (Matthew 7:14).

I don’t know if this has any significance, but there are exactly 32 months from the date of the 2019 dream to September 8, 2021. The number 32 signifies covenant. Our Lord Jesus has made a covenant with His people that He will return one day. Of course, this covenant was sealed at the cross by His very own blood and ensured through His resurrection, ascension, and glorification at the right hand of God.

There is something quite interesting about this latest dream coming on February 28 (2.28)—it’s not the first time something significant has come to me from the Lord on this day. The fact of the matter is that it is the sixth time a message (through a dream, word, or encounter) has come to me on 2.28.

The first time came on February 28, 2008 when I dreamed of searching for and finding a Key of the Kingdom. In the dream, I used the key to open a door to the stairway of heaven.

Now, thirteen years later, I'm dreaming of an open door and expecting the Lord Jesus to appear at any moment.

Other messages came in 2009, 2013, 2014, and 2015 dealing with not looking back, the condition of the church, sonship, and the Kingdom and coming into rest, mostly pointing to the coming of the Lord.

Interestingly, I did not see the significance of February 28 until 2015, when a word came to me during the night. It's important to see the progression of what I'm sharing. It wasn't until 2015 that the significance of 2.28 came to light and I began to search my journals for its meaning.

One important lesson I've learned is that the Lord often leads us through a process (sometimes hiding what He is doing) that builds upon itself until the right moment to disclose what He is doing. It is through the process that the Lord makes it clear He has been in it all along, so that we can trust the conclusion of it. This is how He builds His faith in us.

On December 24, 2015, I could not sleep because, frankly, I was struggling over what it means to be anointed and was asking the Lord about it, to which He responded: "It is coming soon. Look at the clock". The clock read 2.28 am. In other words, the time indicates a specific day of the year, February 28. More on this in a moment.

It wasn't until six months later that, on July 3, 2016, I was woken at 3.21 am and told: The future of humanity is in the balance. Pray for the anointing. It is coming! For My presence is coming and I require an anointed body.

With this word, the spirit of the Lord began to explain to me the true nature of the anointing that we all have within us and is soon to come forth as rivers of living water. The anointing precedes the Presence of the Lord. In retrospect, I believe the Lord led me, in the first place, to struggle over the anointing in preparation for what was to be revealed later.

It is clear that He has been building this message in me about the anointing in conjunction with His Presence and the manifestation of His Kingdom. The importance of 2.28 is discovered in the two dreams that, like bookends of the six messages, appeared in 2008 and 2021. To reiterate, 2008 was about receiving a key of the Kingdom and opening the door of the heavenly staircase to the Kingdom, and 2021 is about an open door of the Kingdom and the soon arrival of King Jesus. For the discerning, the implications are quite clear. The Day is drawing near; it won't be long!

Open Door in Empty Room

To seal the deal, so to speak, there is one more piece of evidence. I don't know about you, but there are times when I sense a prompting to simply ask the Lord a question, as if He has something to tell me but wants me to ask first. After all: "Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you" (Matthew 7:7). Frankly, I believe He not only gives us the prompting to ask but also puts the question itself in our heart in the first place.

Around 6.21 am, on July 15, 2021, I sensed a prompting of the spirit to ask the Lord a question, one I've never thought to directly ask Him, but I did: "You're coming through the Door, aren't You?" The answer came immediately: "Yes, I AM!" Then: "Do not fret or concern yourself over what you see is happening or going to happen in the world. Rest in Me! The APPOINTED TIME is NOW. The time is up!"

As I write this, I am sensing that there is something far greater and far beyond what has been revealed to me to date. It is so profound that I am not yet able to express it. I'll say this—as believers, our reality is about to be shaken.

There is nothing more to add to this at this time. Selah!
