Deliverance of the Anointed (Follow-up)

For those new to this site, there are many supportive documents to what follows. Please consider these: link1 link2 link3 link4 link5 link6 link7 link8.

You went forth for the salvation [deliverance] of Your people, for the salvation [deliverance] of Your anointed [chosen ones]. You struck the head of the house of the evil [wicked, lawless] to lay him open from thigh to neck [razing the foundation unto the neck]. Selah. (Habakkuk 3:13)

I keep coming back to Habakkuk, a prophet for today, because, I believe, he speaks to where we are in history, not predictively but in principle. In particular, this verse speaks to the burden the Lord placed upon me that continues to burn in my heart. As Jeremiah could not keep silent, neither can I.

This all began in 2016, when the Lord impressed upon me that the future of humanity was in the balance and that He required an anointed body. Since then, it has become clear that humanity will be brought back from the brink of destruction through the anointed body of Christ. This is why He said to pray for the anointing. Then, in 2018, I was told that September 21, 2021 would be the beginning of a reset and it was about the anointing that was necessary in light of man's delusional plan for a global reset. Finally, (and I haven't reported this previously), on September 18, 2021, I was explicitly told: The anointing is coming as promised, starting on the 21st. The anointing is the reset. For this reason, concluding the insight on collectivism, I wrote: On the 21st of September, God began His divine reset that will come about through His anointed ones. He has commenced the process of anointing His people who will rise up as His light force of good to defeat the dark force of evil. A reset of God's people precedes His reset of the world.

So, although I have posited that on this same day (21st) the gauntlet of a dark global reset was thrown down by the shadowy, global ruling class, the good news is that God has put into motion the antidote to man's reset. Whatever the forces of evil try to do, God will outdo (i.e., conquer) with His force of good.

This is the day the process of renewing the anointing began in God's people. (As a reminder, the word reset means "to set again, renew".) But there's more: based on a word that came to me in 2017, this reset will also involve God's chosen awakening to their true identity.

Not only has the anointing been suppressed (not lost) but so has what it means to be in Christ and Christ in us—not just in the future but especially in the NOW. As believers, we have been living at a level far below what we have been called into in the present. Yes; there is a glorious future destiny, but we also have a now that is vital to that destiny, as well as the destiny of all humanity.

And, this leads back to the opening verse. Moving past the many interpretations of this verse, based on principle alone, I proffer that the one going forth is Jesus; the delivered ones are His called and chosen ones—the anointed; the house of evil speaks to the defeat of evil (lawless ones, wicked, the satans) that was unequivocally defeated at the cross. However, here at the end of the age, the anointed are the Lord's means to destroy the house of evil built by the delusional, anti-Christ, global elitists of our present era. To achieve this, the Lord Jesus is delivering His people from the spirit of the world system and filling them with His spirit (the anointing) so they can go forth in His power and authority based in His love, peace, and justice. This filling is more of an upwelling than an outpouring, more of a reset than a revival.

Thus, in this light, perhaps Habakkuk could be reworded: Our Anointed Head, King Jesus, has gone forth for the deliverance of His chosen anointed ones. Through their anointing from their Head, they will strike the head(s) of the house of evil. This is an encouragement to all who belong to the Lord Jesus, especially as we see the world system crumbling around us, much as the ancient prophet saw in his day.

In *America-The Lord God is Our Salvation*, I explain that mankind has been stuck in endless cycles of good and evil. The good news is that it will be broken. Here's an excerpt:

The only way the cycle of mankind will be broken is through the Presence of the one who called forth light in the very beginning. And, the first step in this cycle breaker is for the Son of God to raise up many sons of glory, the anointed company of believers who are filled to overflowing with His spirit. From their innermost being will flow rivers of living water; this water—that is, spiritual life-giving water—will come forth as an *upwelling* of life and love and light. This first-fruit company will make way for the open manifestation of the Kingdom of God and the arrival of King Jesus, the one who has inherited the nations and possesses the earth. He has the right of ownership and rulership over His creation, and nothing can nor will stop Him from proving it to the world.

On the 21st, the Lord began the process of delivering His anointed by awakening them to the fact that they have the anointing within them right now; it has always been there for those who have received the holy spirit. Unfortunately, for far too long, it has been suppressed by many things (too many to recount [e.g., tradition; clergy/pastor-laity system; deception])—but especially by the flesh that must die to self.

Since John remained on the scene longer than the other apostles, he had more time to observe the many dangers faced by his “little children”. Consequently, he knew they had to be reminded of what they possessed that protected them from deception.

And you have an anointing from the Holy One, and you all are aware. ... And the anointing which you obtained from Him is remaining in you, and you have no need that anyone may be teaching you, but as His anointing is teaching you concerning all, and is true, and is no lie, according as it teaches you also, remain in Him. (1 John 2:20, 27 CLV)

This anointing is found in the ekklesia that Jesus is building, which is a temple in the Lord, a dwelling of God in spirit—meaning His “church” is entirely spiritual. The anointing hasn’t been lost, for it has continued to manifest in various ways in the Lord’s people down through the centuries, something to which many of us can personally attest. Some famous so-called revivals and noticeable moves of God serve as examples; however, these have been mostly short-lived or for a season. What hasn’t occurred is a continuous, unrestrained release of the anointing to the point of constant overflow from within the Lord’s body, something Jesus Himself promised.

Now on the last, the great day of the festival, Jesus stood and cries, saying, “If anyone should be thirsting, let him come to Me and drink. He who is believing in Me, according as the scripture said, out of his bowels shall gush rivers of living water.” Now this He said concerning the spirit which those believing in Him were about to get. For not as yet was holy spirit given, for Jesus is not as yet glorified.” (John 7:37-39 CLV)

Consider Jonathan Mitchell’s expanded rendering of verse 38.

“The one continuously trusting and progressively believing into Me, just as the Scripture says, ‘Rivers (floods; torrents) of living water will flow (or: gush; flood) from out of the midst of his cavity (his innermost being or part; the hollow of his belly; [used of the womb]).’” (John 7:38 JM-NT)

Or, consider Paul’s declaration that the love of God has been poured out in our hearts through the holy spirit which is being given to us (Romans 5:5). Jesus promised that His disciples would receive the spirit of truth, which is the holy spirit. This is the same spirit within all of us who have been given the faith. According to Paul, there is only one spirit. But here is something else to consider—spiritually, Christ is both Head and body that Paul called the Christ.

Just as the [human] body is one [body] and continuously has many members (of many body parts), and all the members of the one body—being many—are one body, thus, also, is the Christ—the Anointed. (1 Corinthians 12:12 compilation)

The one body is the Christ and, the Christ is the Anointed. This means that the entire body of Christ is an (the) anointed body—each member having received the holy spirit. If the “church” had held to this truth down through the centuries and the so-called faith leaders (by whatever title) hadn’t pretentiously owned the anointing for themselves (i.e., “touch not the anointed”), the body would have been healthy and vibrant and would have withstood the infiltration of the spirit of the world into its teaching, thinking, and methodology. The individual members would have sensed the dangers and guarded against them. The Lord’s people would have been properly equipped to discern the spirit of truth within them that teaches them all spiritual truth.

Thank God; even though it seems that the many have fallen prey to the system, there have always been a few who have stood outside of it—who have come outside the camp (i.e., the organized religious system with its tradition, worldly organization, and divisive doctrine). Even among Jesus’ twelve disciples, it seems that a few stood out from the rest, as only three were given the privilege of seeing Him transfigured on the mount.

The anointing is the living water that brings the living seed of God implanted within each of us (1 John 3:9) into full maturity, so that Jesus’ promise is fulfilled in His people in our very generation, just as it was fulfilled in a remnant of the first-century brethren and each generation that followed; otherwise, the testimony of Jesus would have been lost.

This leads to the question: Where do we stand? Have our lives been so encumbered with the spirit of the world that the spirit of Christ, the anointing, has been suppressed within us? Have we become like wells that have gone dry? Or, are we like the well Jeremiah was thrown into that was filled with mud (sludge) at the bottom (we’re stuck in the sludge of this world system)? Or, do we have some water in the well, but it has grown stagnant? Or, are we beginning to feel the water rising, refreshing us by a spring of pure, clean water?

The well of rising water—an illustration of the anointing rising up in the Lord’s people—is where the real action is taking place. However, more is to come, for the well is destined to keep rising with a mounting pressure that will burst forth as a fountain of living water, flooding all around, giving life to all, much like *the water flowing from Ezekiel’s temple*.

This is what was reset on September 21, 2021, much like turning a spigot back on that has been rusted in place for years.

You might be wondering: Where are the signs of this reset? Optically, it would appear that there were no great outward signs—like some supernatural neon sign blazing away announcing its arrival. As Paul reminds us: we received the spirit from God, so that we may know the things freely given to us by God. So, the answer is that the anointing is a matter of the spirit, not the flesh. The Lord always works from the inside out when it comes to His people, meaning the anointing of the Lord begins in spirit, not in outward manifestations or the supernatural. To be sure; manifestations of the anointing will follow that, rather than being called the supernatural, are more appropriately called spiritly-natural (new word) to highlight the source—they are manifestations of heaven on earth or God’s realm being revealed in man’s realm. If anything, the spiritly-natural (or: spiritually-natural) is a sign to us that we are living out from the realm of God and not our flesh. What they are not, are signs of how powerful and mighty one has become. If anything, they produce greater humility. Our boast is only in the Lord, never in ourselves!

It is essential that we do not lose sight of this: It is all the Lord’s doing. The danger is working up something that’s not of the Lord or chasing after the supernatural that might not be of God; this we must guard against. Be ever mindful: we can do nothing apart from the Lord, and this is especially so for the anointing that must come from our Head, meaning it doesn’t come about because we wish it so. It’s all His doing, not ours.

So, we are drawn back to the question: How do we know the anointing reset has begun?

First, we know it by the faith of Jesus. This makes it intimately personal. When He speaks, we are to take Him at His word and, in doing so, the faith He has given us is strengthened and it becomes our faith. Doubt robs us of living in the good of Jesus’ faith. The question for those reading these insights is whether the spirit within them bears witness that they are from the Lord or not.

Second, we know it because we sense it rising up in our spirit. The few contacts I have had recently attest to this sensing. The recent correspondence from brother Don is a great example. To those who sense this change but have doubts whether it is of the Lord or not, it is time for us to stop doubting and start embracing it as His doing. Now is the time for the faith to rise up in His people. Some are sensing a death of their flesh (the satan within) that has stood in opposition to God. This too is the Lord’s doing. As the anointing builds, we should expect more dealings with the carnal flesh. This is a good thing!

Something has changed for the good. Stated another way: the atmosphere has changed. Again, this is the Lord’s doing. At times, this sensing is very subtle, but it is there. As stated previously, September 2021 was not an endpoint; it was a beginning—the working out of a process entirely of the Lord’s doing—so we should not expect everything to come into place at once—a mistake easily made because of the spirit of the world that surrounds us that seeks for the instantaneous. It's a process! More death to self; more life in Christ!

To those who might be thinking that this is all too subjective, I would say that the subjective is built on the objective, meaning the two go hand-in-hand. A word to go along with subjective is experience. The purpose of experience is to prove objective truth and to build up the faith. Consider this: through Jesus' experience of the horrors and shame of the cross, the greatest objective truths in the history of mankind were revealed. Let us not overlook the fact that Jesus is the Author and Perfector of the faith. How is the faith perfected in us? Through experience that works more of His life in us.

There is one more word to be shared that came on September 6, 2021: *The world is about to be shaken with the greatest quake of all—the quake of My anointed.

If you haven't noticed, there have been several earthquakes reported recently (e.g., Hawaii; Alaska; Acapulco, Mexico [7.0 quake on 9.7.21]), along with volcanic eruptions (e.g., Canary Islands; Hawaii) that produce quakes, as well. Are these signs of the coming of the most powerful quake this earth has ever experienced—not a physical one, but a spiritual one? Are we starting to feel the tremors building within our inner man that will break forth to shake us free from the spirit of the world? This breaking forth must start with the Lord's anointed body first in order to set the entire world free. O, may it openly manifest soon.

Concluding: consider once again the opening verse from Habakkuk (with elaboration): *Lord Jesus, You have gone forth for our deliverance, for the deliverance of Your chosen Anointed Ones.

No matter what our present condition is at this moment, know this: Our Lord Jesus is the Deliverer; He has taken upon Himself the deliverance of His body (out of the world system and the carnal flesh) into the fullness of His anointing. He alone knows how to get us unstuck from the mud, freshen the water, and get it flowing freely. The reset (not a revival) has set in motion this deliverance that will continually build until it breaks forth as a mighty quake that will shake the entire world system man is trying to reset. God's quake is not for destruction but for life—the gushing fountain of living water that brings life to all.

The anointing is all about life—the life of God's Son—Jesus, the Anointed One!

Be encouraged!

Postscript: We have entered a new season, so it's time to put aside any further discussion of September 2021. Let's press on toward the goal for the prize of Jesus!
