America's Greatest Trial; Great Deception (Word)

Number 46: Man Without the Holy Spirit

Today, November 7, 2020, after a restless night of sleep during which time my spirit (soul?) seemed to be distressed, I was woken with the word deception. I believe the spirit of the Lord was impressing upon me throughout the night that great deception has been and still is in play. This is not new, for this word first came to me in 2012, as I have reported, but what I have not stressed are several insights that came in 2010 and one that came at the start of 2012 that speak to where we are today – best summed up by the words trial and deception. See: Great Deception in the World.

First, it needs to be highlighted that there are eleven years between 2010 and 2021. As I have previously posited, there is a possibility that 11-year cycles have been in play starting in 1999. If true, 2010-2021 is the second of the cycles, pointing to 2021 being the worst year of this period.

As a reminder, the number 11 signifies disorder or disintegration, which, in turn, speaks to crises that lead to chaos and confusion.

On June 24, 2010, I heard: America is going into the greatest trial she has ever faced. It will seem as if all hope is lost and she will not make it. But then, the light of My glory will shine upon her and she will turn to see Me in the face of My chosen. The times surely will change. It is coming. No man can stop what is coming upon not only America but all the nations. The earth will teeter but I will right her.

On July 26, 2010, I was wakened and was asked: What do you see? Looking straight up, all I could see was a ceiling fan whirling around. So, I answered: I see a fan whirling around. Then I heard: Great deception is whirling around the globe, like a great whirlwind.

On November 29, 2010, I heard: You are waking to a whole new world. It will never be the same. Lean not on your own understanding. Woes have come!

On December 1, 2010, I heard: The world is in shambles. Nothing is as it seems.

On January 17, 2012, I heard: Pray for what is coming upon your nation. Pray for mercy.

We must understand the times. It doesn't take much imagination to put our present day in the context of the above. However, it also indicates that there is much more to come before we see the light of day, specifically the light of the glory of God in the presence of the Light of the World – King Jesus. This glorious day is coming; we can and must hold this expectation without wavering.

In this age of massive amounts of information available through the internet, it is easy to find a source of information or narrative that lines up with our world view or ideology or political persuasion, much like what we Christians do with doctrine. Once we cement our minds in one of these narratives, we tend to see it as true (right) and all other narratives as false (wrong). We might even see the ones holding to the so-called false narrative as deceived as we write off their views as baseless or without foundation or conspiratorial. At this very moment, we are seeing this being levied against anyone who questions the establishment's so-called "science" relating to the pandemic and the US presidential election results.

The result of this common approach is that we tend to discount the possibility that there could ever be some deception in the narrative we hold to be true. This would apply across the broad spectrum of commentators we come to accept as reliable reporters of what we hold or believe to be true. But, are they truly reliable all the time? Aren't they vulnerable to deception themselves, especially as they, too, rely on other sources? What if the narrative has been infiltrated by clandestine groups to steer the narrative away from what is truly going on behind the scenes or to discredit certain commentators or reporters by revealing later that what they reported was patently false? In other words, they make them look like fools who should never be listened to again.

The answer to these questions is that all these things are not only possible but quite likely in this day of subversion. We must agree with the spirit of the Lord that we are in a period (cycle) of great deception whirling around the globe. Although deception is a trademark of beast-like nations, based on what has come to me, the speed of the fan of deception has continually been set higher since 2010. The whirlwind might have started on slow speed but today it is set on high.

The point is this: the more one looks across the broad spectrum of information, the more one realizes there is a whole lot of deception whirling around. What makes this so unprecedented is the scale of deception – it is global! Without elaborating: lockdowns, masks, social distancing, PCR tests, tracing, and case counts are being thrust at us more and more each day, as if each is backed by "science" and not to be questioned, while much of it is not real science.

On another front, when we consider the last four years of the Trump presidency, it is easy to see how the establishment narrative has spun deception after deception against the president. But what about what could be called the alternate narrative coming from alt-media (as opposed to mainstream narrative) that has attempted to peel back the curtain of this deceptive narrative as they are censored and branded as conspiratory theorists? Are they immune from being purveyors of this global deception, as well? No! There are many things the alt-media has said were going to happen, as if they were imminent, especially regarding Trump, that never materialized. The verdict is still out on how much deception has infiltrated or permeated the alternate narrative, but we can be sure it's there. The question is, how deep does it run?

Just as I finished writing this, the mainstream media called the election for Biden. (As pointed out by others, no one can call the election except the Electoral College, which our Founding Fathers had the genius to make part of the USC.) At the same time, some among the alternate narrative claim Trump, who will not concede at this point, has had a plan all along to deal with a fraudulent election and there will soon be arrests. They are calling it a sting operation, as they claim Trump won in a landslide. Is this wishful thinking, deception, infiltration, or reality? Others claim, with some evidence, that the numbers don't follow normal election mathematics and there is documented voter fraud in many places. In response, the biased-mainstream media call these claims baseless and without evidence. For the last several nights, we have heard this repeated, as if fact, on a local, nationally-affiliated news channel. To drive their point home, they interview so-called experts who say there is absolutely no voter fraud in US elections, as if it has never occurred. This is like saying there is no sin in the world.

At this point, we are in a wait and see mode.

By the way; many have prophesied that Trump will prevail. I purposely have steered away from jumping into this stream because the primary message on my heart is King Jesus and His kingdom. I may have something to say about these prophecies later.

Here's the point: there is a whole lot of deception whirling around and we are facing the greatest trial in our history. Keep in mind that the aim of deception is to deceive – to cause to accept as true or valid what is false or invalid. A method of deception is to keep one focused on something while something else is going on behind the scenes, while the something else is the real agenda. It's called distraction.

So, although we can get all uptight and panicky about a pandemic, an election, a global reset, and a whole host of crises (present and future), these are distractions from what is really going on and at stake. What is going on? To answer this, let's consider what Jesus said as He faced His death on the cross.

Jesus answered them, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up." The Jews then said, "It took forty-six years to build this temple, and will You raise it up in three days?" But He was speaking of the temple of His body. (John 2:19-21 NASB [bold italic added])

There were two temples being contrasted in this conversation with the Jews: Herod's temple and Jesus' body. Herod's temple was never glorified like Solomon's temple, meaning the divine presence was absent. In fact, Jesus warned that Jerusalem and Herod's temple would be destroyed (Matthew 22:7), and it was when God sent the Roman army to do His bidding in 70 AD.

The key to our understanding is Jesus' reference to 46 years.

The Greek word for temple is naos, appearing in the new testament 46 times. Also, the Greek word for Adam (i.e. man) has a gematria of 46. Humans also have 46 chromosomes (23 from each parent) that define the makeup of our flesh (i.e., height, eye and hair color, skin tone, etc.). Clearly, the number 46 relates to man. But in what way?

Since Jesus linked the number 46 to Herod's temple that was absent the divine presence or, we could say, absent the holy spirit, the number 46 signifies man without the holy spirit. Thus, in the context of Jesus' response to the Jews, the number 46 signifies human flesh (i.e., temple) without the holy spirit (Adam in his fallen state).

Dear saints, this is the clue to what is really at stake in this perilous hour of world history. This is the final battle for the very heart (or: existence) of humanity. Who will rule this world? Man without being filled with the spirit of God? Or, God's temple (His people) filled with the spirit of the Lord, manifesting His divine presence in glory? The ultimate question is: Will man rule without God, or will God's Son, King Jesus, rule with His new creation – the one new man? We know the answer. KING JESUS and His new humanity.

On August 17, 2015, I was told that man has taken his stand in the temple of God. Taking a stand in the temple of God is a metaphor for one who takes the place of God as if a god. This god rules without the holy spirit, the very meaning of the number 46 at this hour.

But there is one more clue to why this number is most likely in play at this moment in history. If Biden is inaugurated, he will be the 46th President of the United States. Could a Biden presidency symbolize man without the holy spirit? There is far more at stake than the US. The spirit of antichrist is attempting to take over the world and rule all humanity, even to change what it means to be human (i.e., transhumanism). It is a subhuman spirit. The entire drive of the global elitists is to take their seat in the temple of man's body, absent the holy spirit, as gods over the entire human race. The technology they want to inject into the human race will make them gods, along with their AI. This is what's going on behind the scenes.

We are in this war at this very moment. It is the final battle for the future of humans created to image God. This is what's at stake. To quote the words given to me in 2016, as noted in the above insight on anointing: The future of humanity is in the balance. Pray for the anointing!

If you have not done so, you are strongly encouraged to read the following:

Final Battle for Humanity
WW3, China Conflict
Pray for the Anointing

As I keep reiterating, what we are witnessing (with more to come) are signposts on the highway to the Kingdom of our Lord. Signposts are not the end of the road; they simply are evidence that we are on the right road as we pass by or through them (i.e., experience them).

Through many trials (afflictions, tribulations) we must enter the kingdom of God. (Acts 14:22)

Don't be dismayed or discouraged. Truth will ultimately prevail because the Truth is the Victor. Light (truth) always dispels darkness (lies, deceptions). Let us walk in the light.

The good news is that just as God sent His army to destroy Herod's temple, so will He send His army, His anointed body of conquerors, led by King Jesus, to destroy man's temple without the holy spirit. This battle will not be fought and won with literal guns; it will be fought with peace and the word of truth as the world witnesses the glory of God in Christ's body. The victory: man filled with the holy spirit!

It is time to put aside all these distractions and set our expectation on God's victory through His Son, our Lord Jesus. We must get our eyes off these distractions and onto the very love of our life, the one who loves us with an infinite, unending love – His name is Jesus, the lover of our life, who is the perfect and complete image of our heavenly Father who is love.

Set your heart on the Lord Jesus. He is our hope and our life and our love. This is no deception.

We, however, are free citizens of Heaven, and we are waiting with longing expectation for the coming from Heaven of a Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ, who, in the exercise of the power which He has even to subject all things to Himself, will transform this body of our humiliation until it resembles His own glorious body. (Philippians 3:20-21 Weymouth [bold added])

Christ in you, the expectation (hope) of glory! (Colossians 1:27)
