Wave Crashing on White Rock (Dream/Word)

On November 27, 2012, I dreamed:

I was taking a picture of a wave crashing on a large rock in the distance. Next, I was on the sea side of the rock. Strangely, I was given no indication what I was standing on, but it was clear I was not on land. I thought to myself that the only way to get to land was to wait for the huge wave to recede and for me to run across this rock before the wave hit again.

The rock was quite large and seemingly was made of one piece. It was not a series of rocks strewn about as one would see in breakwaters. This was one rock shaped sort of like a seat and its back. The rock was beautiful white granite-like, but it had streaks of brown, brown veins running through it.

So, at one point, I decided to run across the rock before the wave crashed upon it again. I ran to the other side, but then I realized I was standing underneath the wave—in the tunnel of the wave.

Rather than be fearful that I was about to be dashed under this wave, I simply cried out to the Lord very calmly that He would help me so I wouldn't get caught in the wave and its undertow. I even asked that I would rise up out of the water. I was at peace.

I woke up at 12:40 am and immediately asked the Lord for an interpretation, and He spoke.

I have betrothed you to Myself. Nothing will come upon you to harm you. Even if the wave crashes upon you it will not harm you. You are Mine and I protect all that are Mine. Love never fails. Though the trials will most assuredly come, you will overcome.

I got out of bed and, for what seemed like 5 minutes, the Lord spoke to me for over an hour. Normally, I am given words of interpretation and later I search scripture, but this night the spirit of God gave me verses to look up in light of what I was being told. [Verses in brackets.]

It began when I asked: Lord, is there anything else?

Yes. Love never fails because I AM LOVE. I fail not. You more than conquer through Him who loves you. Nothing, absolutely nothing, separates you from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus your Lord. [Romans 8:37-39]

I asked: Is there more?

Yes. The waves of trial and testing are coming upon America and the world unlike any experienced before. They will intensify until I come. Hold fast your confidence. Do not be moved. Testify of My kingdom. Endure; the promise is coming! I am coming and I will not delay. Live by faith. Do not shrink back. [Hebrews 10:35-38]

I asked again: Is there more?

Yes. Look not to the left or the right. Straight is the way for the one who is making ready the way of the Lord, for the one crying out in the wilderness. Cry out, 'The kingdom of our Lord is coming.' Do not be moved. [Matthew 3:3; John 1:23; Isaiah 40:3; CLV reads: In the wilderness make ready the road of the Lord! Straight ... be making the highways ... of Him!]

Henceforth, your path is My path. You are on My highway in the wilderness. People will come to you in the wilderness. It must be so because the city is filled with every form of evil and unclean spirit. Great deception and confusion and lies and evil fill the city. Blindness abounds. Corruption and defilement prevail.

Come out of her My people. Come to Me the Author and Perfector of Faith. Come to the One who loves you with a never-ending love that fails not. Abide in love and you will have great confidence in the day of judgment. As He is so are you in this world. [Hebrews 12:2; I John 4:15-21; Revelation 18:4; Jeremiah 51]

I am love and so are you in this world. Testify of My kingdom with great joy.

What you saw in the dream is My spirit coming in great power and authority. My spirit is a refiner. It will remove the impurities of those caught in it. It is not to be feared but embraced. The white granite-like rock also had veins of brown in it. This signifies the impurities. The more the holy spirit dashes upon these impurities the more they are removed. [Ephesians 5:27]

I went back to bed between 2:30-3:00 am and heard: 139 years ago; the trouble started. I believe the Lord gave this last word to prove to me that the interpretation of this dream is from Him and not my own imagination. I had no idea what occurred in 1873 and had no idea it would link up to September 18, 2008.

One more point: The Lord impressed on my heart that the shape of the rock was like a seat. The shape and the white color signify His throne. This also should remind us of the white garments of the bride (Revelation 3:5; 19:7-8), and the white stone of the conquerors (Revelation 2:17). Clothed and enthroned! Of course, Christ is also the Rock! He makes our paths smooth. This is why I could run across the rock.

Although His throne has no impurities those who will be counted worthy to sit upon it will be ones who have been purified—refined from the inside out. These are the conquerors.

He who conquers, I will grant to him to sit down with Me on My throne, as I also conquered and sat down with My Father on His throne. He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says... (Revelation 3:21)
